The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

JAKE says, do your best and don't worry.

YOUNG man about town who owns a car when asked if he had ever been pinched for going too fast replied that he had not been pinched but he had been slapped.

THERE has been no marked improvement in necks as the result of necktie week. Possibly it might be wise to institute a rubberneck week.

ITS an Eastern contem. that says some of the latest neckties resemble an aggravated rainbow trying to make good after twilight.

YESTERDAY the town was full of politicians. Tonight it is possible it will be a town with politicians full.

RETURNING again to the subject of ties, I suggest that what is wanted is a tie that will convert a roughneck.

NOW that the political situation has calmed down and the political hangers on have evaporated or are too drunk to disappear, why not discuss that old grammatical quibble as to whether we should say "politics is" or "politics are." Jake declares it should be "politics am."

IF you throw a man's clothes into the street he is likely to follow suit.

THE new racquet shade of ladies cloth is the kind she makes a hit with.

Wail of the Defeated

The election is over and I shall
Just take a bit of sleep.
I'll dream of the time, when feeling sublime,
I made the opposition look cheap.

I'll dream of the votes that I might have
Caught in my politic net.
I'll dream of the money I might have now
If I had forgotten to bet.

Ah, think of the days now forgotten
When I was a hero—alas,
Just look at me now and see what comes
To a political ass.

A LAUGH is just like music,
It freshens up the day,
It tips the peaks of life with light,
And drives the clouds away;
The soul grows glad that hears it,
And feels its courage strong;
A laugh is just like sunshine
For cheering folks along.

TELKWA

Miss Helen Howson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howson returned last Saturday from the coast, where she has been attending Columbia College.

The Telkwa Hotel under the management of Mr. and Mrs. P. Slavin is undergoing a considerable change. It now may be said to be one of the cleanest and most comfortable hotels in the interior.

The Gingham dance arranged for election night promises to be one of the brightest of the season. No pains are being spared to provide good music and good eats and as returns are to be announced during the evening, a lively time is expected.

STIFF ADVANCE IN FLOUR PRICE

Peaches, Plums and Apricots Coming—Terrace Strawberries Here—New Vegetables Offered

The local flour market has taken five stiff advances during the past thirty years, the last being a jump of 30c on Wednesday. The total advance in the month has been $1.40 per barrel (200 pounds).

Apples are almost entirely cleaned up and local dealers are unabe to secure any quaity stock from the south.

Peaches, plums and apricots are due this week-end and opening prices will be announced on arrival.

Strawberries from the south are arriving poorly, good quality shipping stock being very scarce. All shipments during the past week have been sold at the dealers' risk as Vancouver shippers will not send them any other way under present conditions. The first Terrace strawberries of the season were offered for sale in local stores this week.
