Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 12 ,1914.

There was a lively debate in the Presbyterian Hall last night when the church literary society argued on the subject: "Resolved! that a lawyer is not justified in defending a criminal whom he knows to be guilty." The affirmative side, taken by R. O. Annual Meeting Took Place Last Boult and Don Crerar, were the winners. Those on the negative were A. M. Manson and W. O. Fulton.
