BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

In the Letter Box

MAKES PROTEST

Editor Daily News.

As a taxpayer, I wish to protest against the Swimming Club being allowed to commercialize the Salt Lakes for the special privilege of the Prince Rupert Boat House.

The Salt Lakes are being kept up by the collections and donations of the public, city and provincial government, and therefore is the property of the public.

In advertising the Old Timers picnic, which is to be held on July 20, it is stated that the public will be carried free from the Prince Rupert Boat House, but that a charge of 25c and 50c will be made before the citizens will be allowed to enter their own grounds.

The officials of the Swimming Club pulled off a stunt last year similar to the one they are trying to pull off at the present time.

The general public know from past experience that the Prince Rupert Boat House are not in business for their health, so it is natural to suppose that a large portion of the entrance fees are being handed over to them for transporting the public to the lakes. On July 14, J. Boddie (who I understand is president of the swimming club) was spoken to over the phone, and was told that the launches Joy Bird and Dixie Rupert, were prepared to co-operate in whatever arrangements were being made in regard to the transporting of the public to the Salt Lakes on July 20.

Mr. Boddie stated that arrangements were as yet incomplete, but that as soon as they were we would be informed.

Mr. Boddie has failed to communicate with us since, and apparently has no intention of doing so.

We have been operating a regular passenger service from Cow Bay to the Salt Lakes, and the officials of the swimming club are well aware of the fact, so why the apparent discrimination against us, and in favor of the Prince Rupert Boat House?

Thanking you, I remain,
R. L. NEWCOMB.

COMPLAIN OF INDIAN METHOD OF FISHING

Flagrant violations of the Game Act by Indians occupied a great deal of the time at the board of trade meeting on Monday night, incidents being disclosed that called for very serious consideration and the demand for drastic action says the Interior News. Among others it was pointed out that the Indians had depleted the stock of fish at Johnson Lake, near Barrett, by netting, while other members related the general habits of the Indians in setting nets at the mouth of all creeks flowing into rivers and lakes, still others telling of Indians and others shooting deer close to the railway. The discussion worked in with plans to have the Game Conservation Board hold meetings in this district, and it is the intention to use every effort to have a stop put to the practice.

FASHIONS & FOIBLES

by Shirley Sharon

French dresses of the fine cotton materials almost always have a little soft fulness below the shoulder and at the neck in back, and of course are invariably trimmed with handwork.

THE French have a way of using just a little fulness at the neck and shoulders of their fine lingerie dresses which has a softening effect and makes a thin material look very much prettier than when it is cut in a plainer fashion. It is an excellent way to handle the cotton voiles, fine cotton crêpes, handkerchief linen and silk or cotton Georgettes. In these materials the threads draw easily for the handwork that is used so much this Summer. White crêpe de Chine is very fashionable and it is possible, though not particularly easy, to pull the threads in it.

VETERANS WON FOOTBALL GAME

Beat Sons of England by Four to Two in Match Last Night

In the second football game of the Stuart Shield series between the G.W.V.A. and the Sons of England, played on the Acropolis Hill grounds last night, the Vets won by a score of 4 goals to 2. For the soldiers W. Mitchell and Norwood both scored two goals while Geo. Howe scored both points for the Sons. The Sons of England were handicapped by the absence of Dick Lambe at full back and only played ten men throughout the game.

The following teams were fielded:

Sons of England—Dick Howe and Shenton, goal; Dick Howe, full back; Bales, Kelsey and P. Cameron, half backs; Geo. Hill, D. Mathieson, P. Tinker, Dickens and Geo. Howe, forwards.

G.W.V.A.—Knox, goal; Lord and Barton, full backs; Findley, Murray and A. Hunter, half backs; Robertson, Russell, Norwood, W. Mitchell and J. Johnson, forwards.

T. Jones refereed the game and Bob Warrior and J. Sims acted as linemen.

The Game

The Vets kicked down hill and had most of the play in the first half, the forwards having no trouble in getting through the opposing defence. A penalty awarded the soldiers from G. Shenton, which was taken by W. Murray was saved by Dick Howe in goal for the Sons. Shortly after W. Mitchell scored the first goal for the Vets and on a nice centre from J. Johnson was successful in getting another tally. The Sons then broke through and George Howe with a long high shot beat Knox, who fell down as he tried to save. From the centre the Vet forwards got away and Norwood got a close in shot giving the goal keeper no chance. At half tide the score was 3-1 in favor of the G.W.V.A.

In the second half the Sons of England changed their line-up putting Dick Howe at full back and Shenton in goal. The Sons had most of the play in the second half but in this several good chances of scoring were missed. The play centered in the midfield for a while. The Vet forward line eventually got busy and Norwood again scored with a close in shot. From the centre the Sons got away and Geo. Howe scored the second tally for his side. The final score was 4-2 in favor of the G.W.V.A.

Sport Chat

For this year's shoot at Bisley new and smaller targets will be used, the bull's eye at the 200 yard distance having been reduced from eight to six inches and the bulls-eye at the 500 yard range from 20 to 18 inches. These new targets are expected to reduce materially the number of ties which have been such a notable feature of the past Bisley meetings.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb, determined to set a record for scoring 200 or more hits a season, is off to a flying start to achieve this goal before the curtain drops on the 1924 season. The famous Georgia Peach is starting the final half of the pennant race with 101 hits to his credit, the best performance to date in the major leagues. Cobb's consistent hitting has placed him third in the list of American league batters, with an average of .349. Jamieson, of Cleveland, is still out in front with .30, while Boone, of Boston, is second with .351. Babe Ruth is apparently having a hard time keeping up among the leaders, but he is monopolizing the spotlight in hitting homers. Ken Williams, St. Louis, was unable to get the ball out of the lot and is nursing his 14. Eddie Collins, White Sox captain, continues to blaze the trail for the base stealers with 19.
