WOLF HUNTERS WILL LEAVE FOR NORTH

EDMONTON, July 15-Government wolf-hunters this season All players wishing to take part will again penetrate the Barren Lands and wage war on the bands of timber wolves which Miss Tremayne. prey on the caribou herds. Last year the hunters killed off several hundred of the predatory beasts, in the country northeast of Great Slave Lake.

B. Loranger, who headed the first expedition, will conduct the hunting operations again this year. He is taking with him a number of men and the party will leave for the territory of the Caribou migrations by his schooner from Fort Smith, N. W. T., making his headquarters or the Lockhart river, where the caribou cross in millions and where the greatest number wolves were destroyed last year Several canoes are being constructed specially for the expedi-
