BRINGING UP FATHER

PRINCE VISITS AFRICA IN MAY

Will be Welcomed by Governor-General and Premier Smuts on Arrival
PLAN HUNT FOR LIONS
LONDON, Feb. 21.—(Canadian Press)—The Prince of Wales proposed visit to South Africa this summer is a subject of considerable interest, not only because of the long journey and the new experiences involved in the tour but by reason of the fact that it will bring His Royal Highness' series of visits to the Overseas Dominions to a conclusion. With the completion of the South African visit the Prince of Wales will have seen infinitely more of the British Empire and its resources than any other member of the Royal Family, though his father, King George, was accounted a great traveller before he came to the throne.
It has now been settled that the Prince of Wales shall sail from Southampton for South Africa on the afternoon of Friday, May 2. Among those who will accompany him are Vice-Admiral Sir Lionel Halsey, comptroller and treasurer; Sir Godfrey Thomas, private secretary and either the Hon. Piers Legh or Lieut. the Hon. Bruce Ogilvy, equerry. The Prince will travel direct to Capetown, where he will be officially welcomed by the Earl of Athlone, governor-general of South Africa, and General Smuts, premier of South Africa. One of the first engagements of the Prince will be to inspect the military garrison of South Africa. Arrangements are being made for His Royal Highness to visit the whole of the important cities and towns in Cape Colony, the Orange River Colony, the Transvaal, Natal, and Southern Rhodesia. While a large number of public engagements are contemplated, due care is to be taken to intersperse these with opportunities for sport and for purely social engagements.
There is talk of an expedition after big game in the vicinity of the Zambesi and Limpopo Rivers, and something of this description is certain to be included should the time prove sufficient. The Prince has intimated, however, that he cannot devote more than three months to this tour, owing to his engagements at home later in the year.
Constable Harry Martin and Constable P. Carr of Burns Lake, provincial police officers, are sailing for the south on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning having in custody four men who will do time at Okalla. All are from Smilth's and their names are H. M. Seaton, Julius Berger, Frank Howe and Nicolini Alwow. Seaton is sentenced to six months for vagrancy and the other three will serve time for offences under the Government Liquor Act. They will arrive from the interior by train this afternoon.

INDIGESTION GAS ON STOMACH PAINS AFTER MEALS

Many people suffer terribly from gas and pains in the stomach after every meal, and are kept in constant misery. For the past 44 years Burdock Blood Bitters has been bringing hope and joy to thousands suffering from various forms of stomach trouble, helping them to eat three square meals a day; helping them to eat anything they wish, without having to suffer for it after.
Mr. Fred Nielson, Moose Jaw, Sask., writes: "All last summer I was troubled with stomach trouble and indigestion, and also gas on the stomach. I could not eat anything except some light food and even then I would be bothered with pains after each meal. I could not work a whole day without being done out. I had tried everything; doctors, medicines and pills, until I read about Burdock Blood Bitters. I have taken four bottles and it has really, if not completely, restored me to health again."

Sport Chat

Ty Cobb manager of the Detroit Tigers, has been attracting the attention of baseball fans since his second year in the American League. That was back in 1906. He joined the Tigers the year before much the same as any recruit breaks into the big leagues, but it did not take the Georgia Peach long to demonstrate that he was quite different from the ordinary rookie. During the 1905 season Cobb failed to hit in the 300 class. Since then he has not failed to hit in the select circle of batters. Next spring the Tiger leader will begin his 20th season with the Detroit team and he is attracting nearly as much attention as he did when he was earning his reputation as the greatest all-round player in the game. However, the attention he now is attracting is a little different.
Baseball fans have become accustomed to Cobb batting 300 but now they are asking: "Is Cobb slowing up?" "Will Cobb bat 300 next season?" "Will next season be Cobb's last as an active player?" To the first question is "Yes," without qualification. Baseball players in the major leagues are regarded old at 35. Few of them ever attain the age of 40 in the big show. Cobb is between those figures, hence there is no doubt that he has slowed up considerably from the years when he was regarded as an ordinary feat for him to steal not only second, but third base.
There is no reason why Cobb should not bat 300 next season. He has done it for eighteen consecutive seasons and by doing it last year established himself as the only player in the history of the major leagues who has hit for 300 or better for 18 years in a row. The late Captain A. C. Anson did it 20 years, but there was a break of two years in each of which he fell below 300. Whether the next campaign will be Cobb's last as an active player is up to Cobb himself. Judging from his physical condition he should be able to play the outfield for at least three more years, barring accidents. He has threatened to retire as an active player and whether he will carry out that threat at the close of next season time only can tell.

BILLIARD PARLOR DEFEATED GROTTO

Score of Tournament Last Night Was 989 to 803—Hutchinson Shatters High Break Records
The Grotto billiardists, who have been having a sensational run of victories recently, were checked last night in their route to leadership in the Bulger & Cameron trophy race when the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor took them into camp by the decisive score of 989 to 803. An outstanding feature of the tournament was the performance of W. Hutchinson, the second man on the Billiard Parlor lineup, who shattered the high break record of the season twice—first with a break of 50 and then with another of 58. He also made the best win of the evening defeating Don Brown by 200 to 117. Individual scores were: G. Waugh (Grotto) 137; George McIlmoyle (Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor) 200; Don Brown, 117; W. Hutchinson, 200; J. Judge, 155; C. Thompson, 200; W. J. Nelson, 200; F. A. Aldridge, 189; J. Suden, 194; B. Jelich, 200. League standing to date follows:
