MOOSE ENJOY WHIST DRIVE AND DANCE

Metropole Hall Scene Of Large Party Last Night.

A very successful whist drive and dance was held by the Loyal Order of Moose in the Metropole Hall last night. Mrs. Russell was the winner of the first ladies prize and Mrs. A. Nelson won the second prize. J. H. Meagher won the first gentlemen's prize and J. D. Stone the second prize. At the conclusion of the card playing delicious refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. Nation, cakes being donated by Mrs. F. Scadden, Mrs. J. H. Meagher, Mrs. Haudenschild, and Mrs. N. Mussallem.

Dancing was thoroughly enjoyed to the melodious strains of the Westholme orchestra, until the early hours.

The committee responsible for the success of the evening comprised Ralph Kieffer, Joe Slaggard, Percy Cameron, A. Ohnesarg, C. Whatman, J. Bacon and G. Royer.

TOO JOLLY WELL HOSPITABLE HERE

That Was Opinion Expressed By Visitor From London, Eng., At Dinner.

"One complaint I have to make is that you are too jolly hospitable for words," said V. J. Birch, of London, England, who is visiting his brother, Harry Birch, in this city, and who was called upon for a few words at the Gyro dinner last evening. He invited any of them to come to see him in London whenever they had the opportunity and he would then try to pay some of his debts. At present he felt like a bankrupt in that he owed everybody so much kindness and hospitality. Mr. Birch said he saw a great future for Prince Rupert, and he congratulated the Club on the work they were doing in the interests of the children. He urged them to go on with the good work.

BUSY SCENE ON HARBOR YESTERDAY

Yesterday afternoon was a very busy one from a shipping standpoint, and with the C. N. steamer Prince George inbound, and the C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, outbound, alongside each other in the middle of the harbour a beautiful picture could have been obtained for publicity purposes, had a photographer been on the spot. The two coastal liners presented a fine subject in the brilliant sunshine. In addition to the two passenger boats, the C.G.M.M. Canadian Highlander arrived in the harbor at 4.30 yesterday afternoon just as the steamers George and Louise were in the middle of the stream, and the C.N. steamer Prince John lay alongside the Canadian National dock.

SCOTTISH EDITORS EXPRESS DELIGHT

Visit Exhibition At Saskatoon And Today Are At Edmonton.

SASKATOON, July 24—Anxious to see the wheat fields of Alberta, of which they have heard so much since landing in Canada, the party of five Scotch newspaper editors touring Canada, under the auspices of the Colonization Department, Canadian National Railways, left Saskatoon last night for Edmonton.

Yesterday the party visited the Saskatoon exhibition, where they expressed delight with the high standard of exhibits, both in the farm and garden produce and livestock classes. The members of the party are interested in Canada from the immigration standpoint and while here met many Scotchmen who had emigrated to Western Canada to make new homes for themselves here.

On their return to Scotland they will each write a series of articles on Canada as a home for desirable immigrants setting forth true conditions here as far as prospects for intending immigrants are concerned.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

July 24, 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cummings, who have been spending a few days in the city, left this morning on the Prince Rupert for the south. They will be in charge of the G.T.P. pavilion at the Panama Exhibition in San Francisco.

J. N. Wilson, formerly of the telephone department, who has been visiting in the city, left for the south on the Prince Rupert today.

Mrs. and Miss Wallace of Vancouver arrived at Claxton this morning to spend a few weeks holiday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Stead.

STEWART

Jack Howse, who has been at the B.C. Silver property for two years, came down on Saturday.

Mrs. E. L. Dale returned on Saturday from a visit in Seattle.

Gus Anderson, head contractor at the Premier Mine, and his brother Charlie, shift boss, spent the week end renewing acquaintances in Stewart and Hyder.

O. H. Evinghouse and C. A. Burns of the Chief Metals Mining Co., left on Saturday's boat for their home in Seattle after spending a week on the company's property, which is situated a short distance southeast of the Big Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bartholf, who recently returned from Mexico and the Gulf of California, where they were looking over mining properties, have this week commenced preliminary work on their Salmon River properties, preparatory to the arrival of influential associates from California.

Word has been received that the Trites-Wilson interests have forfeited their bond on the Big Missouri, but according to authentic information large mining interests are negotiating for the property.

T. V. Wilson, managing director of the Eldorado Mining Co., arrived on Saturday last from Seattle with two horses and additional supplies for mining operations this season. A quantity of supplies was brought in last spring, taken part way to the property and cached. These will now be moved up to the camp.

dozens of children and many parents are in attendance there. President Milton Gonzales is in complete charge with Joe Greer and Leo Waugh, heads of committees officiating in connection with the program and refreshments. Most of the members of the club are present and the event is an auspicious one for the future of the playground movement in this city.

Mayor Newton is to declare the playground open and ice cream is being served to the youngsters. A short talk is planned by Judge Young on the raising of the flag.
