POWERFUL NOVEL OF PRIZE RING

Reginal Denny of "Leather Pushers" Fame is the Star

Jack London's powerful novel of the prize ring, "The Abysmal Brute," loses none of its original flavor throught its adaptation for the screen. Hobart Henley, who directed the making of the picture as a Universal-Jewel production, has created the strongest picture of this type that has ever been offered to the public. Reginal Denny, who won lasting favor through his portrayal of Kid Roberts in the "Leather Pushers," is the star in this production, and is supported by an all star cast. The picture opens tonight at the Westholme Theatre.

VARIETY OF LOCALES IN "JEALOUS HUSBANDS"

Interior of Ocean Liner, Underground Dive, San Francisco Mansion and Gipsy Camp

The interior of an ocean liner; an underground dive; a palatial mansion in San Francisco; a Gipsy camp.

These are a few of the variegated locales which will be seen when "Jealous Husbands" come to the screen in the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. The story called for a lot of figurative travelling on the part of the characters, with the result that the picture is constantly opening up fresh vistas of scenery and settings.

"ORPHANS" PICTURE GRIFFITHS' GREATEST

Ten Thousand Actors and Actresses Used in Making Thrilling Dramatic Epic

A motion picture development of a scope never before equalled, and presented in a manner far more elaborate than any yet attempted, is promised at the Westholme Theatre on Friday and Saturday night when D. W. Griffiths' latest work, "Orphans of the Storm," a United Artists

THE CROW OF CROUP A WARNING TO ALL MOTHERS

Croup starts with a dry cough and rattling in the throat; after which the croupy crow gives warning of the disease. The child, after tossing restlessly about, with start up with a flushed face, protruding eyeballs, and a distressing look of terror and anxiety. There is a struggle for breath, and the expectoration of the mucous matter is so difficult to get rid of that the effort appears to threaten strangulation.

On the first sign of the "croupy crow" mothers should administer Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and thus give the child prompt and permanent relief, and perhaps the life saved by taking this precaution.

Mrs. H. A. Langhorn, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"My little boy was very bad with the croup and I could not get anything to relieve him until I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I cannot praise it too highly for the relief it gave him."

Price 35c a bottle; the large family size 60c; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Other principals are Joseph Schildkraut, Frank Losee, Catherine Emmett, Morgan Wallace, Lucille Le Verne, Monte Blue, Sidney Herbert, Sheldon Lewis, Frank Puglis, Creighton Hale, Leslie King, Kate Bruce, Leon Kolmar and Adolphe Lestine.

PICKFORD-FAIRBANKS COMPLETE SHOOTING

"Dorothy Vernon of "Haddon Hall" and "The Thief of Bagdad" Finished

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—Production activities at the Pickford-Fairbanks studios were completed with the ending of the year 1923.

Actual filming of Mary Pickford's new offering, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," was finished on December 31st, and Marshall Neilan and the editorial staff are now in the midst of cutting and editing this feature. The finishing of this picture completes Miss Pickford's production schedule which called for two pictures during the past year. While no release date has yet been arranged for "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," it will be distributed through the United Artists Corporation and will probably reach the public some time in March.

Douglas Fairbanks' production "The Thief of Bagdad," was completed almost simultaneously with Miss Pickford's, the month of December being devoted almost entirely to the filming of scenes of magic and fantasy, with the star appearing alone in these sequences. "The Thief of Bagdad" will be given the usual Fairbanks' New York presentation in one of the legitimate theatres, with showings in other key cities to follow. Plans for the general distribution of this production will be held in abeyance, to be announced following the New York premier which will probably occur during the month of March.
