RUPERT HOUSEWIVES BECOME BUSINESSLIKE

The housewives of Prince Rupert are no longer content to believe that a certain brand of goods is the best in the world or that it will last longer. They are realizing that the only proper way to find out which brand is the best is to make a practical test in their own homes and compare values. This is just as it should be.

And the merchant who has the superior article welcomes the acid test of comparison because he knows his chances of selling are improved.

More Prince Rupert women than ever before are testing coal, trying to discover the most economical fuel for furnace, heater, fireplace or range. Those who have tried agree that Nanaimo-Wellington is very much superior. They say less quantity need be used, that there is very little ash and no clinker or rock. These are some of the reasons for the many repeat orders.

To secure this famous Nanaimo-Wellington coal, orders should be phoned direct to Albert & McCaffery who are sole agents in Prince Rupert. Their phone numbers are 116 and 564.

They have their own delivery trucks and wagons and give prompt service. Watch them and be convinced that most of the people in Prince Rupert burn Nanaimo-Wellington coal. There's a reason. Ask the woman who burns it.

OVERWHELMING VICTORY FOR COOLIDGE IN UNITED STATES ELECTION WITH LA FOLLETTE PRACTICALLY EXTINGUISHED.

Turns from two thirds of the seats showed that the Republicans had made a net gain of around a dozen. The election of nine Democrats and nine Republicans senatorial candidates is definitely known with the Republican leading Democratic opponents in several other states.

Early Returns

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Early returns last night indicated that President Coolidge was leading his two opponents by an overwhelming majority in New England, New York, Ohio and Illinois. With these three big blocks of the electoral vote, the president was likewise holding the advantage, but by a lesser margin, in several of the states that had been claimed by the Davis and La Follette managers in their pre-election forecasts. These included Iowa, West Virginia and Maryland.

So sweeping was the Coolidge tide that, at 9:30 standard time last night, the New York World, Democratic organ, conceded the election of Coolidge at the same time claiming New York State for Governor Alfred E. Smith. Democratic, despite the tremendous lead of his Republican opponent, Theodore Roosevelt, jr., in the upstate counties. The Brooklyn Eagle, strong Democrat, declared that Coolidge's victory was apparently a landslide and that, unless there was a slump in the Far West, Coolidge would be elected with a vote in the electoral college nearly as large as that given the late President Harding in 1920. The New York Evening Journal, Independent, said the indications were that Coolidge would receive a substantial majority in the electoral college and relatively a much greater popular vote throughout the country.

The first returns, coming in largely from New England and the East, gave Coolidge a heavy lead over Davis and La Follette. In Massachusetts, Coolidge's home state, the president led Davis 7 to 1. The south was returning its customary Democratic majority.

Smith as Governor

Charles D. Hillis, Republican national committeeman, informed the White House shortly after 10 o'clock last night that indications were Al Smith would defeat Theodore Roosevelt, jr. for governor by about 84,000. At 11:30, the New York Tribune, which was supporting the candidacy of Roosevelt, conceded the re-election of Governor Smith by about 100,000 votes.

La Follette headquarters at Des Moines, Iowa, conceded Iowa to Coolidge at 10:15. At that time, the president had a lead of about two to one over the Senator who would turn the trick in their favor as it did for Wilson in 1916.

The first precinct reported in Seattle gave President Coolidge more than a three to one lead over Davis and La Follette. Hill, the Democratic candidate for governor, had almost as heavy a lead over Hartley, the Republican nominee, and Oman, Farmer Labor candidate.

Though the tide in the east was going strongly against them, Democratic leaders in New York last night were hoping that the

South True to Form

Reports from most of the section beyond the Mississippi last night were still of a most fragmentary character but they gave President Coolidge the best of it in some of the larger states. All the southern states including Tennessee, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Texas and Missouri, were piling up majorities for Davis. The south had apparently returned by the usual vote its Democratic candidates for the Senate, except in Oklahoma where J. C. Walton was running behind.

The election of two Republican senators, Borah of Idaho, and Capper of Kansas, was conceded last night.

Coolidge carried California in spite of early and incomplete returns which favored Davis.
