SEPARATING GOLD IS DIFFICULT PROCESS AT QUEEN CHARLOTTES

Entering into a technical description of the methods to be employed in recovering the gold from the black sand, Herman Block, vice-president of the P. B. C. Mines Ltd, explains that there are two distinct processes. First the sand as it is dug out, is run through sluices at the mine and the black sand separated. This is then known as concentrate. Then comes the more complex smelting process of reduction in which the gold is taken out of the sand. A new proce addition to the use of cyanide is being used. The gold is contained in the particle of black sand and its recovery is no simple matter.

Polo experts are agreed that the outcome of the contest between Great Britain and the United States for the famous International Challenge Cup at the Meadowbrook Club, New York, September 6, 10 and 13, hinges on the excellence and condition of the opposing ponies. If the British lose it will not be the fault of Jimmne Faulkner who has charge of the ponies from overseas. Jimmie was in charge of the British ponies when the British won in 1914. Since his arrival in the United States this summer he has seen both teams in action and when asked what he thought of the British chances said: "We shall give them a good rough-up." It is doubtful whether polo can boast of a more remarkable character than Jimmie. He is seventy—"turned seventy"—and a smiling little fellow with spindly legs and considerable of a paunch. He looks as though he might be forty or at the most in his fifties. It is easier to believe him seventy when you learn that he is the father of thirty-one children. Jimmie will resent any inference that that is too many children and will tell you that his father, who is ninety-nine today and "doing pretty fair" had thirty-seven. Jimmie is the oldest of them.

It has been a pony-wise family. Jimmie's father whose name is John Faulkner, is one of the most famous of Great Britain's old school of jockeys. He won a steeplechase at seventy years of age. One of Jimmie's sons Lester Faulkner is one of Great Britain's crack jockeys. Five other of his sons lie buried in France to prove that the family lacked nothing in patriotism. For many years now Jimmie has been with Lord Winborne at his estate in Ireland and his home in Rugby. Jimmie is the studgroom and has complete charge of Lord Winborne's stables. Most of the ponies that the British will use in the coming contest come from these stables. Jimmie brought over thirty-eight ponies in 1914 and this year he has forty-six, exclusive of the eight owned by the Prince of Wales. His ponies this year are a much better lot than those he brought over in 1914, he says. He is reticent when asked about their good points. Asked about any one of the stars in the string he will invariable reply, "She is a very, very good pony."

Frank Phiscator of Terrace reached the city on last night's train and will sail for Vancouver on the Prince George this evening.

FINAL SCENES ON EXCURSION

see the Glacier Falls on Hudson Bay Mountain. Here a big Dodge car climbed a track where Fords could not go and got right up to the foot of the falls where the side of the mountain rises up sheer to the bottom of the glacier 1,200 feet above. It was a scene of wonderful beauty and grandeur, which in many another country people would travel far to see.

Still another took the Duthie Mine Road which climbs the eastern slope of the mountain above Seymour Lake from which the view over the valley eastwards is a revelation. Driving down to New Hazelton, the car in which was D. G. Stewart raced a bear along the roadside. Every trip was full of incident and will provide many pleasant recollections. Nothing was left undone by the Smithers hosts to permit their guests to see as much of the country as possible within the time available.

Dinner at Smithers

The visit culminated in a dinner given at the Bulkley Hotel in the evening when an invitation was extended to the visitors for another visit next year and to take in the lakes country.

J. Mason Adams, president of the Smithers District Board of Trade, presided, and short speeches were made by S. J. McLeod, E. C. Gibbons, Joe Scott, C. H. Orme and G. W. Nickerson of the Prince Rupert Board; J. P. Wheeler, E. E. Orchard, D. D. Munro, L. B. Warner, L. S. McGill and A. C. Garde of the Smithers Board; and F R. Keefe of Francois Lake.

Others present were J. E. Bostrom, of the Grassy Plains Board of Trade; Capt. Swanson, Geo. Tite Jr., F. Morris, D. Thomson, Murchie, Geo. Wilson, of Prince Rupert; G. H. Wall, D. F. Hatt, J. S. Gray, Fred Watson, F. Ockleshaw, H. Olsen, T. W. Brewer, D. A. McRae, S. A. Eby and W. S. Henry of the Smithers District Board.

Beauty Flies For Speckled Beauties

St. Jovite in the mountains of Northern Quebec is famous as a summer and winter resort. Winter times they use a wingless aeroplane for ski joring, but in summer they put the wings and a body on and use it for fishing and swimming. Behind almost every mountain of the Laurentians there is a lake or two — so the plane comes in handy for jumping over the hills to chase the sporting bass and trout to their lairs. The above pretty girl, one of a party of five, has just come in from a flying trip to a nearby lake and is justly proud of her string of speckled beauties.
