The George Fitzmaurice Production

"THE ETERNAL CITY"

Sir Hall Caine's romantic story laid amidst the scenic wonders of the City of Love. Rome, splendour, love, beauty, the Coliseum, the Roman Baths, the Imperial Palace, the Appian Way, romance, whirling mobs, the historic Forum, sacred places never before shown, the Italian Lancers, the Fascisti, Premier Mussolini, the King and his officers, all this and more in this thrilling drama of tempestuous loves, brave hearts, and great sacrifices.

Lionel Barrymore, Bert Lytell, Richard Bennett, Montague Love, Barbara La Marr and 20,000 others.

Note—The entire company spent nine months in Rome to film this picture.

JUDGING OF FAIR BABIES

Will Commence in Demer's Old Store on Saturday and Continue Into Next Week

Judging in the Better Babies' Contest in connection with the annual exhibition will commence on Saturday afternoon in Demer's old store on Third Avenue. Babies under six months will then be examined with those between 6 and 12 months following, on Monday, between 12 and 18 months on Wednesday.

As has been already announced, the judging will be carried out in a manner similar to last year. The contest is being staged under the auspices of Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, with Mrs. R. Blance convener of the committee in charge. Frank Dibb is chairman of the Fair Board's Baby Show committee.

The judging will be done by doctors of the city assisted by the graduate nurses.

Score cards will be filled up by the doctors and the parents will receive these. They will cover all points brought out in the examinations and, therefore, should be valuable to the parents.

The awards will be made at a date to be set during Fair Week. The trophies are now on exhibition in Bulger & Cameron's show windows.

The Fair Board announces in its advertisements when entries for the various classes close.

TELKWA BARBECUE PROVED TO BE GREAT EVENT IN HISTORY OF THE BULKLEY VALLEY: RACES ATTRACTIVE

Dandelion, ridden by the owner, Roy Wakefield, second being Hot Cake, ridden by Lamb, owner Alec Chisholm.

Indian race. Winner Nellie, ridden by T. Michell, owner A. Michell of Moricetown. Second, Dick, ridden by D. Abraham, owner J. Batiste.

Quarter mile open. Winner, Queen, ridden by Roy Wakefield, second Marmalade, ridden by W. Brodie, owner J. J. McNeill, third Bird, ridden by L. Haggland, owner, W. Skelhorne.

Half mile open. Winner, Warrior, ridden by T. Ovens, owner Dr. G. C. Paine. Second, Dandelion, ridden by B. Swift, owner Roy Wakefield.

Bulkley Valley Derby. One mile. There were five entries, Dr. Paine's Warrior, T Ovens up, romping home ahead of the field as usual. Second was Roy Wakefield's Queen ridden by the owner. This was the big event of the day and caused the greatest excitement of any of the events. Warrior did not have to extend himself and at the last quarter mile, shot ahead in fine style.

Bronco Busting

In the Bronco Busting exhibition, Jimmy Morgan of Ootsa Lake was the winner, he being adjudged the best rider. Other entries were A. D. Ailport, of Topley, E. W. Williams, Topley, E. Joseph, Moricetown and R. Smith, Topley.

Steer Riding competition, the best rider was R. M. Horning, Topley, while second prize went to R. Shaw, Telkwa. Other riders were Pete Wakefield, Telkwa, Ben Nelson, Smithers, F. Williams, Decker Lake, Percy Sparks (late of Prince Rupert) Telkwa; E. G. Stromboldt, Topley; A. D. Ailport, Topley; B. Erricson, Topley; J. Christian, Telkwa; H. S. Christianson, Fraser Lake; and R. Shaw, Telkwa.

The final event was an impromptu exhibition of horsemanship by E. G. Strimboldt of Topley with "Cataclysm" one of the horses which had thrown its rider earlier in the day. He was a black snorter with a long tail and mane and had already showed signs somewhat of acting up towards his name. But Strimboldt rode him successfully notwithstanding the bucking. It was a pretty sight, and a quieter horse returned to the corral.

Riding a Steer

As the crowd were dispersing, one of the visitors moved over to where the boys were still mounted and boldly declared that there was nothing to this riding a steer and that he could do it easy. They took him at his word and the first thing he knew, he was dressed in chaps and spurs like the others. The surcingle was tightened around a steer and he was dropped on the beasts back. Whooping her up with enthusiasm, the boys jazzed the steer plenty, but two bucks was enough and as the wouldbe steer buster picked himself up from the hard ground with his face rubbed in sand, he had to admit that it was some job.

WELL KNOWN BARBER STOPPING OFF HERE

J. A. Shanks Tells Impressions of Stewart After Working There Four Months

J. A. Shanks, the well known barber of Victoria, who has spent four months in Stewart and is stopping off here a short time on his way back to the Capital City. Concerning conditions in the northern mining town Mr. Shanks said:

"That the Portland Canal is a richly laden district is very apparparent to anyone who lives in Stewart long enough to take observations and talk with the many intelligent prospectors who work out from that town. There can be no doubt whatsoever as to the genuine wealth of the Bear River valley. The many high-grade producing properties adjacent to that turbulent and swift flowing stream, noticeably the Dunwell which has proven the great surprise of the mining world, shows conclusively that a golden future is in store for adventurous and far-seeing individuals who have staked their commercial aspirations in the Portland Canal town.

"Stewart is wonderfully situated on a picturesque and really ideal site. With a sheltered gateway to the broad Pacific at its feet, it nestles safely among the ore-bearing hills that rear snow-capped peaks on either side, while behind the town stretches the green and fertile valley of the Bear. No place in all British Columbia has better surroundings or greater possibilities.

Optimistic and Energetic

"The citizens of Stewart are optimistic and energetic. They are there with the glad hand when newcomers arrive and give an enthusiastic welcome to anyone who appears inclined to make a home among them. They are liberal in their dealings and broad-minded in their criticisms. But above all Stewartites are loyal to their own town. The mail order houses of the east would die a natural death if all towns were like Stewart. Seldom is money sent out for goods and then only for such commodities as are absolutely not purchasable in the well stocked stores that line Fifth Street. There are no cross factions in Stewart, the citizens work with one accord for one supreme object, viz., the building of a permanent, prosperous mining town, in the heart of a genuine, nature-endowed mineral zone."

"Stewart's future, in my estimation is a cinch. It cannot fail to grow and develop as time goes on because it has stupendous rugged beauty; it possesses a wonderfully healthy atmosphere; it has an over-abundance of mountain distilled water, and above all it has hills upon hills of great wealth."

Mr. Shanks is temporarily in the employ of Jack Keefe, Second Avenue.
