HOT GIBSON SEEN

IN SAWDUST TRAIL

Thriller, Comedy and Melodrama

Combined in one Western

Play

Hed Gibson's newest feature,

"The Sawdust Trail," which is here for the first time, is a combination thriller, fast action

comedy and Western melodrama.

It is a happy mixture that offers entertainment in several different lines.

The story was written by Will

Hamley Pelley for the Salt-her three latest, "Zaza," "The Evening Post and adapted

Running Bird" and "A Society

to screen use by Raymond Schrock and produced under the direction of Edward Sedgwick. It relates the adventures of a red-blooded youth who stayed in college seven years because he knew as a graduation present his father was going to give him a job in his iron foundry and he hated iron. He was used to spending gold and plenty of it. The lad gets a job in a "wild west" show and courts calamity by making love to a notorious cowgirl who tops the show and whose moniker is "Calamity June." This wild west show stuff is about the best of its kind ever converted to screen entertainment. It is thrilling, very funny and carries a story that is human filled with drama. Gibson does good work as the college chap buckaroo, and Josie Sedgwick is well cast as Calamity June.

GLORIA SWANSON TO BE SEEN IN MANHANDLED

Tessie McLean Whom She Characterizes Learns in the End That a Girl Can Cheapen Herself

Gloria Swanson has done it again! In her new Paramount picture, "Man-handled," coming for the week end, has out another different line.

Scandal." "Man-handled" deals with the problems of life in New York as the shop girl finds them, and Miss Swanson, in the role of Tessie McLean, runs the whole gamut of emotions, taking a whirl at being a sculptor's model, spending some time posing in a modiste shop—all for the love of the clothes and a so-called good time. But she learns in the end that the honest love of Johnny Hogan, a hard working auto mechanic, is far better than the temporary luxuries showered upon her by sculptors, department store owners, modistes and cigarette manufacturers.

Once more our Glorious-Gloria proves that she can do more than just wear clothes well. Not only does she display the flashing dramatic ability that so surprised and delighted her admirers in her previous productions, but in "Man-handled" she blossoms out as a comedienne of first rank. One of the especially clever bits of comedy imitation she does in the picture is an impersonation of a Russian countess. She puts a Chaplin touch into this scene that undoubtedly adds new laurels to her screen interpretations.

COLOR OF EYES AS GUIDE TO DIRECTOR

Barker Says in Broken Barriers he used Formula for Choosing Those to Represent Characters

It wasn't Reginald Barker who first said that "eyes are the mirrors of the soul," but his name is on the scroll of those who have given this optical quotation their fullest endorsement. This famous director, in casting his pictures, pays as much attention to the color of the eyes as he does to reputed acting ability. For example, in casting his latest production for the Metro-Louis-R. Mayer interests, "Broken Barriers," which is coming here tonight, Mr. Barker was guided by the following formula in order to bring to the screen the exact characterizations:

Dark Blue: Intense affection and purity of soul.
Light Blue and Clear: Constancy, cheerfulness, good temper.

THOR. JOHNSON'S

"SOCIETY BRAND STORE"

Only Brunswick gives you these two exclusive features—the All-Wood Oval Horn and the Ultona.

They are the Key principles of the noted Brunswick Method of Reproduction.

The All-Wood Oval Horn—built entirely of wood—amplifies the tones of any record in full harmony with the laws of acoustics. No nasal twang. No metallic harshness. The true, rich, natural tone of instrument and voice.

And the Ultona gives you unrestricted choice of records without fussy attachments or adjustments. A twist of the wrist gives you the exact point, position and weight for any type of record. In the Brunswick you have a phonograph that plays every make of record perfectly and whose beauty of design, workmanship and finish is a real credit to your home.

Pale Blue with shifting and unsteady gaze: Deceit, selfishness.

Gray and Greenish Gray: Impressionable, impulsive, unreliable.

Light Brown: Lack of constancy.

Greenish Brown: Coquetry, lack of sincerity.

Russet Brown: Affectionate, sweet, gentle.

Dark Brown: Intense affection, passionate.

Very Dark Brown or Black: Extreme ardor in love.

Indefinite Color: Listless, cold disposition, selfishness.

"Please don't get the impression that, literally, I believe the color of eyes always mirror the soul of their owner," said Mr. Barker regarding his formula. "While, for example, dark blue eyes may mean purity of soul, in many instances there are cases where, like dark brown eyes, they spell a passionate nature."

"But I find that the color chart holds true so far as acting is concerned—that people having the eye tones I have tabulated possess a peculiar ability to register the moods and emotions set opposite their typing in my book of experience."

"Broken Barriers" is a screen version of Meredith Nicholson's novel.

FRED DUBORD PLEADS GUILTY AT TERRACE

Hotel Keeper Admits Selling Liquor and Sentence is Reserved Until Tuesday

Fred Dubord pleaded guilty at Terrace before Stipendiary Magistrate E. T. Kenney on Saturday to a charge of unlawfully selling liquor. He asked that he be remanded for sentence so that he might have a few days to straighten out his personal affairs and, if possible, sell his hotel. This was granted and accused will come up, possibly tomorrow, for sentence.

BOOM IN BELGRADE DEMAND FOR LUXURIES

Building Goes On Keeping Population Busy—Many Incongruities.

BELGRADE, Dec. 8. — Belgrade is now vying with Bucharest for the title of "Paris of the Balkans." The city is being rapidly transformed from a sleepy, melancholy, unattractive, provincial town to something like a European capital. Its stores are full of luxuries, jewels, rich furs, silks, lingerie, expensive confections, perfumes and cosmetics. Everybody seems to have ample money to buy these articles. A tide of prosperity is now flowing through the country.

Making More Room.

There is not sufficient room in the capital for the thousands of Slavs who want to come here from the united provinces. Several thousand new buildings are under construction, the streets are being repaved, parks, public squares and an esplanade are planned, a new Royal Palace and a new Parliament building are nearing completion, the construction of a great stadium is contemplated, and the government is offering prizes of 500,000 francs for the best plan for the improvement and beautification of the city.

"You won't know Belgrade in another five years," its citizens say proudly. "We shall have a capital worthy of a nation of 13,000,000 people and a city that will attract Europeans."

It is a city of strong contrasts. In the heart of the business, banking and shopping sections the visitor sees many peasants, herdsmen and hand-made farm carts drawn by the immemorial ox.

Carrying Coffin.

An American visitor was startled to see an aged ex-soldier carrying a coffin on his back through the crowded shopping district of the capital. It was explained that the Serbian undertakers made their deliveries of coffins to their patrons in this fashion. Such incongruities are constantly to be seen in the capital.
