EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY OFFERED BY OLIVER GOVERNMENT

Every child is entitled to a good start in life. A sound education is the first step, and this the Oliver Government has provided for all.

The night school, "the University of the Workers," has been developed so that pupils may matriculate to the University.

Domestic, technical and agricultural training courses have been greatly advanced.

Correspondence courses for miners and pupils beyond reach of schools are in full swing.

There are 30,318 more pupils at school in British Columbia today than in 1916-just one more sign of real progress.
