WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight Only, Saturday at 7 and 9

THE FLIRT

A dramatization of Booth Tarkington's vividly realistic novel of that name. A story full of dramatic situations, irresistable humor and just enough pathos to arouse the softer emotions once in a while. A graphically written tale which proves that although still waters run deep a Marcel wave can swamp a man-o'-war. The adventures of a heartless flirt, regenerated at last by true love, who possessed a kid brother of the pest age, a walking dictaphone who just makes you shriek with laughter.

Eileen Percy
