CALLIES OUT GILHULY CUP

Fielded Unregistered Players and Forfeited Game—Score Was 6 to 2

Unable to muster enough players to field their regular football team against the Sons of Canada in the replayed semi-final for the Gilhuly Cup last night, the Callies—by using unregistered players— forfeited their chances of winning but nevertheless put up a game for the small crowd of spectators that had assembled under rather uncertain skies. The score was 6 to 2 in favor of the Sons of Canada but this was not altogether a fair indication of the play although it may be conceded that the Sons had the best of it on the whole.

The Callies forwards were weak but the defence was better and the Scots, after being outplayed in the first half, re-adjusted their team and, playing on the up-grade, had full share of the game in the second half but missed many scoring chances. The Canucks fielded the usual team which performed in its regular effective manner. W. Martin, a Scottish standby of former days, played in goal and at centre half. D. Bennett, centre forward, was the other unregistered player.

The scorers of the game were: W. Hamilton, 1; J. Sims, 1, for the Callies; McDougall, 2; Erskine, 2; A. Mitchell, 1; and E. Warren, 1 for the Sons of Canada.

The score at half time was 3 to 1 in favor of the Sons of Canada.

Tom Jones refereed, W. Westwood and D. McKensie were linesmen and the teams took the field as follows:
Sons of Canada—S. Gawthorn; V. Menzies; H. Astoria, J. Marks and G. Mitchell; A. Mitchell, McDougall, S. Erskine, E. Warren and E. Smith.
Callies—W. Martin; W. E. Williseroft and H. Hamilton; J. Sims, Sam Currie and J. Harris; M. Andrews, W. Hamilton, D. Bennett, G. Cochrane and J. Andrews.

Summer sport activities being pretty well over now, the Old Country is once again looking towards the grey days of autumn and winter for then the one great national sport of Britons sweeps everything else off the boards and centres all attraction in itself. Soccer, the game which has now become an international pastime, has made its bow and for another eight months will hold Briton in its spell. The opening games of the English leagues will be played on August 30, the Scottish League having already opened.

Betting at the present time is even on the fight to be staged in Jersey City on September 11 between Luis Firpo, the Argentine heavyweight, and Harry Wills, the negro contender for Jack Dempsey's crown. A remarkable demand for tickets is being recorded and Tex Rickard, the promoter, expects to get 100,000 spectators through the gates. Though neither of the men, up to now, have been considered in Dempsey's class, it is hoped that one of the two will be able to score a decisive victory so as to enable him to be picked as the coming opponent for Dempsey. It is said that Firpo has much improved since he was knocked out by Dempsey and, as Dempsey is bound to "go back" with each additional year, the winner of the Jersey City fight may yet wear the heavyweight crown.

The Sons of England will field the following team in the Gilhuly Cup semi-final against the Great War Veterans tomorrow night: Lambie; Dick Howe and Lambie; Hodgkinson, Cameron and Kelsey; Hill, Bales, Munroe, Dickens and Timker.
