OUT OF TOWN PEOPLE AND CHILDREN TAKE PART IN COMPETITION

Smithers, Endako, Terrace and Other Points Send In Verses

Verses are coming in for the verse writing competition from a number of out of town points including such places as Smithers, Endako, and Terrace. Also children are doing their share. The first three of the following verses are written by pupils of Seal Cove school, where there are no advanced pupils:

Little Blue Jay

Little Blue-jay, little Blue-jay,
I like to see you flying from tree to tree,
I love to hear your song so gay.
You seem so happy and so free.

Little Fish

Little fish, little fish,
You like to swim in the sea;
I like to have you for supper in a dish,
Along with a cup of tea.

What a Child Said

'Come little bird," said a little child,
'Come out and sing for a little while,
And I will listen to your song,
Dear little bird, I'll do you no wrong."

My Chicken

With eyes so bright and sparkling,
She sings with careless glee,
When, in the nest I made her,
She lays an egg for me.

Ode to a Bug

There once was a snug little bug,
Who dwelt in a lovely soft rug,
But someone passed by,
And smashed her, Oh my!
Now the rug has no snug little bug.

Heard in Westview

(With apologies to Lewis Carroll)

Will you walk a little faster
Said a herring to a whale,
There's an elevator coming
And we'll have to clear a trail.
See! the barnacles are listenin' in—
They'll have to soon advance,
They are waiting now for "tidings"
Ere they give their farewell dance.

The Parrot's Song

A parrot once shook his wise little head,
As to a canary he sadly said,
In a cage of gold I never long to be,
For on my little perch I am much more carefree,
The canary laughed as Towser came along,
And ended right there our parrot's song.

The verse must have to do with some form of animal life such as a bird, fish, animal, insect or germ. It may take any form desired such as an ode, a quatrain or even the popular limerick. Three prizes will be offered. $5 for first, $3 for second and $2 for third.

The verses will be published as submitted but the name of the author will be reserved to be used only in case of his winning a prize.

The verse should be neatly written on one side of the paper only and addressed to "Competition Editor," Daily News. No manuscripts will be returned.

QUIET WEDDING ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Miss Annie Vine Birnie Married to George Wilson McKay Both of this City

George Wilson McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McKay, Brussels, Ont., and Miss Annie Vine Birnie, daughter of the late J. C. Birnie, and Mrs. Birnie of Prince Rupert, were the principals in a quiet but interesting wedding which took place at 8 o'clock Saturday night in Suite No. 11, Besner Apartments, where the couple will reside. Rev. A. G. Hacker officiated.

The bride, who wore a charming gown of grey flate crepe with silver trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds, was attended by Miss Violet B. Taylor who wore white crepe and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. John Morrison of Sunnyside supported the groom.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few immediate friends of the couple—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Glessey, John Dore, Miss Chrissie McLeod, and Mr. Davie. A delightful wedding repast was served under the supervision of Mrs. Carrall.

The groom's present to the bride was a travelling bag; to the bridesmaid, a platinum bar pin and to the groomsman, gold cuff links. The bride's gift to the groom was a platinum stick pin set with pearls. Numerous presents testified to the popularity of the contracting couple.

Mr. McKay is well known throughout the north. He is the local manager for the Government Telegraphs and, before coming here, held a similar position at Hazelton. Mrs. McKay has resided here since early girlhood and has been a member of the municipal telephone exchange staff for several years.

SUCCESSFUL TEA AND SALE HELD BY PRESBYTERIAN AID

A very successful tea and sale of home cooking was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. K. Campbell, 245 Fourth Avenue West, by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church. The sum of $54 was realized.

Mrs. R. M. Taylor, president of the Ladies' Aid, and Mrs. Campbell received. Mrs. Fred Stork and Mrs. C. A. Eggert poured with Mrs. T. McClymont, Mrs. D. G. Stewart, Mrs. R. F. McNaughton, Mrs. C. E. Starr, Mrs. S. J. McLeod, Mrs. G. A. Bryant and Mrs. W. J. Nelson serving. Mrs. D. McD. Hunter and Mrs. S. Massey presided at the home cooking table and Mrs. T. C. Pringle was in charge of the sale of plants. Mrs. George Rorie was cashier.

Ex-Ald. John Currie returned on the Cardena yesterday afternoon from a brief business trip to Vancouver.

"Cheese—and ways to Serve it" is the name of a little booklet every housewife, particularly every mother, should have. It contains nearly a hundred tested, economical recipes besides a wealth of authoritative facts about cheese. It suggests ways to serve "something different" in the menu of children and grown ups without sacrificing essential nourishment. It is indexed, illustrated in color—and free. Fill out and mail coupon below.

Kraft Cheese always bears the Kraft trade mark on the tinfoil. Ivariably insist on seeing it before you buy, even though you have taken care to ask for "Kraft Cheese."

NAAS RIVER

Miss Calnin has returned to Prince Rupert after having spent a short time visiting at Aiyansh with her father, Pat Calnin.

Gingit Creek has been recommended by School Inspector H. C. Fraser as the most suitable site for a school in Aiyansh district.

The election of the Aiyansh native council has been deferred by Indian Agent Collison until later in the year.

There has been trouble with the dam that provides the water for the Aiyansh electric light plant. Indian Agent Collison has promised that he will do what he can to have lumber sent up in order to repair the dam.

Miss Winstone has commenced her studies as teacher at the Indian day school and is living with her sister, Mrs. Oliver Thorne, at the mission house.

Dominion Constable and Mrs. E. G. Newnham have moved to Kincolith where Constable Newnham will make his headquarters in future. Mrs. Newnham is back from a holiday trip to her home in Manitoba.

There has been a great deal of rain here lately and the settlers are now hoping for a clear spell so they may get their garden truck in before the snow comes.

TERRACE NOTES

Mrs. Robert Donald went to Hazelton to bring home Billie, who has been at the hospital there for a couple of weeks.

Rural Dean T. J. Marsh went down to Rupert on Saturday to take duty for Archdeacon Rix.

Dr. and Mrs. Tremayne and family and Dr. West who had spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh have returned home.

Mrs. Hippesly is at the Hazelton Hospital.

Harry Smith had a nasty accident which might have proved more serious, while engaged in working on the bridge. He was almost crushed between one of the iron pieces which was being lowered. He was unable to work the rest of the week but hoped to go back to work today.

J. R. Tannock arrived in the city on last night's train from Fort Fraser. He will take a position as chief clerk in the government agent's office here succeeding A. M. Davies, who is transferred as chief clerk to the forestry office.
