Local Men Were
On The Job.

The two local citizens who voluntarily interviewed the Alberta grain commissioner at Vancouver on Monday and told him of the advantages of Prince Rupert as an elevator port as well as inviting him to come here to see for himself are to be congratulated on seeing the opportunity and taking advantage of it. Such is the spirit that gets things. If it were manifested a little more generally Prince Rupert would be brought more distinctly into the limelight and eventually would gain something tangible through it. The fact that Commissioner Motherhill stated Prince Rupert was not generally known as a possible grain shipping port indicates that some good effective missionary work has been done by the local men even if no other result obtains from their interview.

Many Admire
Frank Statements.

While these little outbreaks of the Attorney-General in telling people what he thinks of them without employing varnished language may be criticized by some persons, they at least indicate Mr. Manson's sincerity and show that he is tied to no one. Mr. Manson has narrowly escaped getting into hot water more than once when he assaulted the dignity of benign organizations and individuals—first Hon. H. H. Stevens, then the Senate and now the Vancouver Ministerial Association—but, in the long run, the average person admires him for his frankness. Between Premier Oliver and the Attorney-General there has been instilled lately a novel touch in provincial politics. Both have indicated more than once that their sincere opinions are not to be camouflaged in the usual cloak of tactful affability which is the popular savior for doubtful votes.

Way Clear To Improve Salt Lake.

Now that the provincial government has come into possession of the Salt Lake, that popular summer and winter resort may be more advantageously improved to make it suitable as the community recreation park. Arrangements will likely be made whereby the city obtains rights in return for which it will be expected to take a hand in making the betterments necessary. Some limited improvements have already been made but, up to now, the interests that have been responsible for them have at ways been at a disadvantage in not being assured of quiet enjoyment.

Vancouver Is Not
The Only Port.

After going at length into an editorial discussion of port charges at Vancouver and administration of the harbor commission there, the Edmonton Bulletin concludes: "Fortunately Vancouver is not the only Pacific port accessible by rail from the prairies. Prince Rupert in the north and Portland in the south are equally accessible. More than half of our eastbound grain now reaches the seaboard through United States Atlantic ports. There is no reason why westbound grain from the more southerly section of the prairies should not reach the Pacific at Portland, if Vancouver is not going to play fair. Rupert is practically as near the northern section of the prairies as Vancouver and is quite as much entitled to the trade. Instead of urging a still further increase of the elevator accommodation at Vancouver it would seem to be the part of wisdom for the people of the prairies to urge elevator construction at Prince Rupert. The support that Vancouver has received from the prairies in the past has been given under the impression that Vancouver would play fair towards the trade that it was so anxious to get. The board of harbor commissioners have made plain that that is not their intention.

The Perils of Neglect

Digestive ailments are frequently neglected. People say "It's only a touch of indigestion—it will go away." What begins as simple discomfort is allowed to become a serious chronic ailment. Never neglect the treatment of digestive derangement. To relieve disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, Beecham's Pills act promptly and usually overcome the difficulty. Take

HEAD CHIEF IS DULY INSTALLED

Rufus Dudoward Vested With
Office at Port Simpson Amid Much Ceremony

PORT SIMPSON, Jan. 9.—Ten years ago the head chief of this village, A. S. Dudoward, before his death, nominated his successor. The matter has lain in abeyance until last Monday when, Rufus Dudoward, nominee of the late chief was, at the request of the Kitandau tribe, publicly installed in office by Rev. Dr. J. C. Spencer, the resident missionary.

In his address previous to installation, Dr. Spencer gave an address stating that there must be a head officer in every business, village and city, that these men were under appointment of God which was given through the people and that any nuisance or abuse of power so conferred was disloyalty to God as well as to men. The names of some rulers were as a bad smell in the nostrils of the people while those of others were as perfume.

Qualifications of a chief, Dr. Spencer said, were that he should have a mind of his own; should make it known to the people; and he should be willing to reason and debate on all questions bearing on the welfare of his people.

The duties of a chief were to lead his people in everything that was good and helpful, to advise, and if need be, reprove what he knew would harm his people, to stand for the right on all questions affecting the well being of his people and set a good example for his people to follow.

Followed by Banquet

After the installation about three hundred people sat around well filled tables and partook of a three course meal well prepared and tastefully served, followed by dessert of fresh and preserved fruit. The dinner ended, a number of speeches were made, all assuring the newly-appointed chief of appreciation and co-operation.

While Rufus Dudoward was installed as head chief, his nephew, Clarence Watson, was installed in the office vacated by the now head chief.

The brass band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with choice selections.

In honor of the event some small donations were made by the Kitandau tribe to the several institutions in the village.

There was general goodwill and everybody was happy.

PRESBYTERIAN AID
ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. R. M. Taylor was Chosen
President at Annual Meeting
Yesterday Afternoon

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church took place in the church hall yesterday afternoon and the following officers were elected for the year:

President, Mrs. R. M. Taylor.
First Vice-President, Mrs. D. McDi. Hunter.

Second Vice-President, Mrs. W. H. Wilson-Murray.

Secretary, Mrs. Sam Massey.
Treasurer, Mrs. George Rorie.
Executive—Mrs. S. K. Campbell, Mrs. C. Starr, Mrs. D. G. Stewart and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick.

Reports for the year closing were received and plans were made for the annual congregational dinner to be held next week.

FRANCE TO WITHDRAW
FORTY THOUSAND MEN

PARIS, Jan. 9. — (Canadian Press)—Forty thousand men will be withdrawn from the French forces of occupation in the Ruhr and Rhine within the next few weeks, it was made known today. The French government, it was declared, had decided to keep in the occupied territories the minimum number of soldiers required to maintain the occupation. The men will be evacuated in four stages, some remaining at frontier garrisons in eastern France and others demobilized altogether in enforcement of the eighteen months' service law now becoming effective, under which ten divisions of the present army will disappear.

In the Letter Box

OBJECTS TO HEADLINE

Editor, Daily News.

Your headline "Vancouver Clergymen Lectured for failing to Aid Liquor Reforms" leaves a bad impression in many unbiased minds. Why try so hard to boost the stock of Attorney General Manson? Why not say in your headline "Manson Withdraws Objectionable Phrase?" The Ministerial Association fought tooth and nail against Premier Oliver's government sale of liquor. When it passed they said "We will remain quiet and see how it works." It was a colossal failure under Mr. Farris' administration and it is a colossal failure under Mr. Manson's administration.

Mr. Manson tries to put the blame on the municipalities, the Senate and the Clergy. He passed the buck to the municipalities. They retaliated. He passed the buck to the Senate and even that sleepy body retaliated. He now passes the buck to the Clergy and that peaceable body of men resent it. Still your paper gives him a glorious headline.

I am a Liberal in politics but not Liberal enough to let this pass unchallenged. Why should the Ministerial Association help patch up a failure which they have opposed from its inception?
