"BROKEN BARRIERS"

A story of new morals -- and old. A fearless handling of the most vital problem of our time that will hit home in every household. The mad pace of jazz crazed youth pitted against the slow tread of convention. The tale of a typical modern girl who craved freedom spent everything on clothes to advertise her sex and advanced back to Babylon for a moral code-then came true love and the awakening. A photo-play that proves there are no new temptations-only old ones wearing a new guise. Superb scenery and dresses. Ten big stars and strong supporting cast. James Kirkwood, Norma Shearer, Robert Agnew, George Fawcett, Adolphe Menjou, Robert Frazer, Winifred Bryson. Mae Busch, Vera Reynolds, Ruth Stonehouse and others.

"FIGHT AND WIN" SERIES No. 2: Jack Dempsey in International News. "A Society Knockout."

SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service. May we call?
