DROVE THROUGH FINE DISTRICT

Grand Master of Masons and Local Members Were Given Good Reception at Smithers

The party of local Masons who accompanied Charles E. Tisdall of Vancouver, Grand Master for British Columbia, on his trip to Smithers returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train. The visitors were received very hospitably by their brethren in the interior and they were taken for a seventy-mile drive through the Bulkley Valley visiting such points as Telkwa and Round Lake. It was the first time that many of them had been afforded the opportunity of seeing the district at such close range and they were agreeably surprised to note the progress that had been made along agricultural lines. Seeding is just commencing and a good deal of new land is being put under cultivation for the first time. The weather was beautiful and the roads were in good condition.

The visit of the Grand Master to Smithers was accompanied with the usual ceremonies. Mr. Tisdall went on to Prince George and will proceed to Vancouver via the Fraser River and the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

BURNS LAKE

Flight Lieut. Earl MacLeod of Vancouver inspected Burns and Francois Lakes recently as possible landing places for the British round-the-world night. He was pleased with the possibilities at both points though there is not much likelihood of Francois Lake being used for it is off the course. A dance was given here in honor of Lieut. MacLeod.

William Call of Forestdale has been arrested on a charge of having stolen goods in his possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stanyer have left for Fraser Lake where they will reside for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKenzie left last week for Seattle enroute to Los Angeles.

Frank L. Carroll has been appointed assistant forest ranger with headquarters at Topley. P. Kerr of Wistaria is filling a similar position in Burns Lake district.

S. N. Long has left for Vancouver where he will visit for a time.

There was a baseball game here yesterday between Francois Lack and Burns Lake.

A meeting was held here on Saturday evening in the interests of the Provincial Party. The speakers were John Connell of Victoria and J. F. Tener of Vernon.

P. L. Beckstead, who left here some time ago, is reported to be doing well in the garage business at Revelstoke.

The village commissioners have decided to purchase a 70 gallon chemical fire engine for the town. Eber Twaddell has been appointed pound-keeper.

NEW HAZELTON

The following delegates were appointed to represent Hazelton district at the Methodist Conference which will open in Vancouver this week: Mrs. N. Kilpatrick, Smithers; Mrs. Phillips, Telkwa; John Newick, Hazelton; Mrs. H. A. Harris, Hazelton Hospital; Mrs. Lees, Smithers. Rev. M. W. Lees of Smithers, Rev. W. C. Mawhinney of Telkwa, Rev. J. H. Young of Terrace, and Rev. Victor Sansum of Hazelton are also attending the conference.

Robert Tomlinson, who has been in charge of missionary work in the Kispiox valley for many years, has decided to relinquish his duties.

R. S. Sargent, Conservative nominee for the forthcoming provincial election in Skeena riding, presided over the Provincial Party meeting here last week.

The Hazelton Horticultural Society has elected officers as follows: President, Dr. H. C. Wrinch; vice-president, Mrs. R. S. Sargent; secretary, H. H. Little; executive committee, the officers and Ed. Hyde and Mrs. Galloway.

Repairs have been made to the high level bridge and it is again ready for traffic.

Dr. H. C. Wrinch occupied the pulpit in New Hazelton Methodist Church yesterday in the absence of Rev. Victor Sansum.

Leonard Wrinch has returned from Edmonton to spend the summer visiting with his father, Dr. H. C. Wrinch. He has completed his third year in medicine at the University of Alberta.

The ferry across the Skeena River is again in the water and is giving good service.

Antonio Sartori made the auto trip to Smithers and return last week. It is the earliest trip for a season on record.

Roy McDonnell returned at the end of the week from the prairies where he left his little son, Jack, with relatives.

Hospital Day is being fully observed today in this district. Rev. T. D. Proctor preached appropriate sermons in St. Peter's Church yesterday, there was a reception and baby show at the Hospital this afternoon and tonight nurses' graduation exercises will take place. Among the speakers will be R. S. Sargent, S. H. Hoskins of Smithers and Rev. T. D. Proctor. There will also be a musical program.

SMITHERS

The following Bulkley Valley farmers have entered the Dominion government's clover growing district competition: F. W. Foss, C. Chapman, E. Morin, F. Gilbert, Charles Newitt, J. Preece, J. C. K. Sealy, O. Eckman, K. Letchford, George Murray, E. C. Barger, Joe Bourgon, A. J. Bossons, R. M. McGregor, H. Wearne and J. Warren.

News of the death at Primate, Saskatchewan, of Joe Sheady, a well-known pioneer prospector, has been received. He was part owner of the Reco-Aspen mine, and his brother, Micheal Sheady, now acquires the interest.

The Glentanna Liberal Association has elected officers as follows: President, J. Griffin; secretary, Mrs. K. E. Chapman; executive, R. Ashburner, J. McCabe, W. Wilson, C. Chapman, Walter Fea and J. Malkow. Charles Chapman was elected delegate to attend the nominating convention at Hazelton on Thursday of this week.

A. T. Harrer has returned from Pennsylvania and announces that machinery is on the way for a sawmill he is to establish west of town where the old Hudsoon Bay mountain road crosses the railway tracks.

T. A. McMartin has just completed erection of a building on Third Avenue which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goodacre.

The official board of the Smithers Union church for 1924 has been elected as follows; treasurer, W. Mitchell; secretary, Norman Kilpatrick; board, D. C. Sangster, S. Bennett, Geo. Smith and L. S. McGill.

The Smithers' Catholic Club opened its rooms at a successful card party held last week. First prize winners were Mrs. W. F. Boyer, I. Anger, Mrs. James Fea and S. Mayer. Consolation awards went to Mrs. S. Bennett, H. Gunderson, Mrs. W. Goheen and H. Senkbill. Solos were given by Mrs. L. B. Warner and H. Matthews.

The engagement is announced in Victoria of Miss Frances Buss, daughter of Mrs. Buss of Saanichton, to Major R. L. Gale of Smithers.

Mrs. D. F. Hall has left for southern cities on a three month holiday trip.

J. G. Stephens is in Winnipeg attending a conference of the chairmen of the various locals of the order of railway telegraphers. An effort is being made to have the Smithers and Kamloops divisions combined as a promotion district.

PRINCE GEORGE

J. W. Smith, inspector of lands, Victoria, was in the city last week enroute south after having spent a month in the Stuart River District where a party of settlers was recently brought from Esthonia by Sir John Pitka. It is Mr. Smith's opinion that they will make good.

Allan & Thrasher, the mill men at Loos, lost 70,000 feet of timber in a fire last week which was fortunately confined to their yards without damaging the mill.

A silent policeman is to be erected at the corner of George Street and Third Avenue. It will be 18 inches thick and four feet high and will carry an electric light and red sign.

F. P. Burden has returned from a trip to the Bear River district where he cruised timber lands in which Howard Cole and associates of New York have become interested.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. West of Punchaw arriven in the city last week and will proceed to Vancouver Island where they intend to locate. Mr. West is selling his ranch which he has been developing for the past four years.

Harry Sinclair, the Mud River rancher, has returned from a stock-buying trip East.

Neil McMillan, until recently chief of police here, has left with Mrs. McMillan for Vancouver.

W. Somerton has left for Cleveland, Ohio, where he will attend the triennial convention of the order of railway telegraphers as delegate from Northern B.C.

J. P. Enemark, who has been in the mercantile business here for the past fourteen years, left last week with his family for Seattle. If developments in the district warrant, he may decide to return.

The following farmers of this district are entered in the federal government's clover growing competition: Robert Blackburn, E. W. Rich, Reginald Holmes, S. C. Neilson, Andy Miller, A. M. Campbell, George E. Boothroyd, Hugh Blackburn and William Lockyer.
