Welcoming Our Prominent Visitors.

Yesterday there was a big crowd out to meet the Premier the world, but I must admire the and his party on their arrival from the East. They were not de- man who can smile and say he monstrative but their presence was an indication that they are likes bread pudding. interested in the leader of the government and his associates. Tonight they will be out in large numbers to hear Mr. Mackenzie TERRACE PARENT-King speak at the Westholme Theatre.

Prince Rupert people do not any longer enthuse over speeches. Many ministers of the crown of various parties have been here at various times telling what is to be done for Prince Talk on Experiences at Wembley He's the proud father of eight to been done. When ground is broken for the elevator, then they will feel that something is really happening, but if they reserve their enthusiasm until that time, they can hardly be blamed. People of all parties are adopting the attitude of waiting and watching and hoping, reserving their political allegiance until such time as they are assured by acts rather than by words.

Difficult Position For Liberal Leader.

Prince Rupert people appreciate the difficult position i which the Liberal government is placed owing to the fact that of O Canada. There was a brief they are dependent on another party to enable them to carry on discussion regarding the Books the government. Premier King has handled the situation in masterly manner and is today generally looked upon as the big-for the school, as to whether the gest man in Canada, politically. That he will continue to lead P.T.A. or the school board should the government after the next election is the expectation and pay for them. It was finally hope of the Liberals of the West. They are, however, loyal to moved and adopted that it be left Prince Rupert before any allegiance to party and it is absolutely to the school board. After a little necessary that this port get fair treatment if the allegiance of further discussion in regard, to the people is to be maintained. That is what we have not had matters concerning the library, hitherto from either party. The Meighen administration did its best to kill the port and the railway. Everyone admits that. The present administration evinced a more friendly spirit but it has her holidays in England and not yet got beyond friendliness. The fruits of the spirit are visited the Wembley Exhibition, needed now to cement the bond that exists between this city and gave a most interesting and inthe Liberal administration. It is the actual work that can hold this constituency and nothing else.

First Visit Of Two Ministers.
