The heroes of this year's World Series between the New York Giants and Washington Senators were:

First game—Kelly and Terry of Giants with home runs, score 4 to 3 for the Giants.

Second game — Peckinpaugh with batting; Marberry with pitching and Goslin with home run gave Senators 4 to 3 victory.

Third game—Frisch, Ryan and Young's fielding and Rosy Ryan with home run, Giants won 6 to 4.

Fourth game — Goslin with home run and three safe hits; Mogridge with pitching; Senators won 7 to 4.

Fifth game—Jack Bently with pitching and home run; Goslin with home run; New York won, 6 to 2.

Sixth game — E. C. Rice with brilliant fielding; Senators won 2 to 1.

Seventh game — Harris with home run and safe hits; Washington won, 4 to 3.

The Senators won the World's Series despite the fact that they made less runs, less hits and nearly twice as many errors as the Giants. For the two games the box score was as follows:

New York	27	64	7
Washington	26	61	13

There were eight home runs during the Series. Washington got four, three of them by Goslin, and New York four. Three of Washington's were largely contributory to winning three games for the Senators. The Giants won each game where their players batted circuit clouts. In the first game Kelly and Terry both made home runs for the Giants. In one game Bently made a home run for the Giants and Goslin one for the Senators; the Giants won the game. The home run hitters of the series were Goslin, three, and Kelly, Terry, Ryan, Bentley, and Harris, one each.

The most hits for one side in a single game were made by the Giants in the first game— twelve innings—when they got 14 off Walter Johnson. The big blonde hurler of the Senators weakened in the twelfth after having struck out twelve men but Young McNeely really lost the game by bad fielding. The most errors were made by Washington in the seventh game. The lightest game was the sixth when the Senators made two runs, four hits and no errors and the Giants, one run, seven hits and one error. Nehf for the Giants and Zachary for the Senators pitched this game right through. Peckinpaugh, the Washington short stop, had bad luck—he was badly hurt twice. His absence was a severe handicap to the Senators.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE AT ANYOX BUSY ON WINTER ACTIVITIES

ANYOX, Oct. 13—The Community League council met on its regular meeting night in the music studio, with President Harper in the chair, and a good attendance of councillors. The secretary's report stated that the Granby Company's painters would be at work in Recreation Hall shortly, that the gymnasium would be available by the first of November, that Mr. Moss of Alice Arm had submitted a figure for wrinting the new bylaws, the price being $49.50 for five hundred copies, that the annual sports' banquet should be held on October 27 that the Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary had requested Recreation Hall for the night of November 3, and the Service Men's Association for the night of November 10 both dates being for dances. A number of novels in good condition had been offered to the library, about eighty in all, and were a bargain. Two letters had been received, one from a piano player requesting a position in the picture show, the other from a dancing teacher, asking about possibilities of starting a class.

The council authorized the secretary to purchase the books offered and to go ahead with the sports banquet, that five hundred copies of the bylaws be printed at the price submitted, that the dates requested by the hospital auxiliary and the Service Men's Association be granted, and that the secretary reply to communications for positions. There was some discussion on music and musicians, the matter being finally laid over for future action. Library matters were also under discussion, and the chair appointed. E. Yard as chairman of the library committee. Mr. Thompson was appointed chairman of the sports committee and Mr. Lafortune chairman of the house committee.
