SMOKING CONCERT WAS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

G.W.V.A. Staged Entertainment Last Night - Songs, Music and Speeches

A very successful smoking concert was held by the Great War Veteran's Association last night, President W. E. Denning occupying the chair.

Prior to the commencement of the concert the usual one minute silence was observed in honor of departed comrades.

An excellent musical program was furnished during the evening by the band of the First North B.C. Regiment under the leadership of Bandmaster Beale. A splendid program of songs was rendered by Wright Davis, A. J. Bishop, Bob James and Jim Murray. A pianoforte solo by Fred Hayter was much apprecialed. During the entertainment appropriate addresses were given by Fred Stork, M.P., American Consul E. A. Wakefield and Mayor S. M. Newton.

Delightful refreshments were served by George Richmond of the St. Regis Cafe.

The company broke up a little ifter midnight with the singing of the National Anthem. Those responsible for the success of TAKE NOTICE that W. E. Collison, the evening were Norman Short.
