SONS OF CANADA LEAD IN WHIST

In a postponed game of the Fraternal Whist League, the Oddfellows last night defeated the Elks by a score of 6 to 3. This leaves the Sons of Canada in first place with a narrow margin of leadership.

The league standing to date is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pts.
Sons of Canada	6	2	6
Elks	6	3	6
St. Andrew's	5	3	5
Sons of England	4	4	4
K. of C.	4	4	4
Oddfellows	4	4	4
Loyal Orange Lodge	4	5	4
G. W. V. A.	3	5	3
Moose	3	5	3
K. of P.	2	6	2

Sport Chat

By virtue of the defeat of the Great War Veterans by the Grotto and the clean sweep of the St. Andrew's team over the Callies, the senior Scottish team in the second division billiard league has displaced the Veterans from second place in the standing of the teams and it now looks as if it will be the next aggregation to menace the hold of the Billiard Parlor on first place. Of course, the Billiard Parlor has a good lead at present and it is not likely to drop it before the first half of the schedule is over. The Grotto meets the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. team in tonight's fixture and if the tobacconists make any kind of showing the Vets will be due for another drop to fourth place in the standing.

With tonight's games, the first half of the schedule of the men's section of the Fraternal Whist League will come to a close. The opening of the second half will find several teams bunched near the top and still in the running for championship honors. The Sons of Canada and Elks have been sharing the leadership most of the first half and are still tied in that position but the St. Andrew's team is only one game behind and then come the Sons of England, Knights of Columbus I.O.O.F. and Orange Lodge but two games from the top. Tonight's games will be as follows: Oddfellows vs. Sons of Canada; Knights of Pythias vs. Great War Veterans' Association; St. Andrew's vs. Sons of England; Knights of Columbus vs. Moose.

An interesting week-end of basketball is in store for the fans. On account of the special games between local and Anyox High School teams and the Senior all-star players in the Auditorium tomorrow night, the regular scheduled league games will take place in the Elks' Home tonight. The Colts will take another crack at the Sons of Canada in the Senior League. They have the chance of jumping into second place with the Canucks. In the Intermediate League, the Colts will play the Regiment. The former team has the opportunity of tying up the standing with the Grotto as fas as number of wins are concerned but will still be in second place for they have one more defeat against them than the Tobacconists. The third game of the evening will be a Junior League affair between the Colts and Tiny Tims.

The score made Tuesday night by J. F. Ritchie, Junior, was 34 out of a possible 35. The perfect score is yet to be made and those attending the ranges are anxious to do it.

SENSATIONAL CATCHER IS CHARLES HARTNETT

Attained Record for All-round Skill in League Ball Games

NEW YORK, Dec. 18. — Few persons who have picked 1924 All-Star National League teams, or "All" combinations from both leagues, have left off Charles Leo Hartnett, sensational young catcher of the Chicago Cubs.

Hartnett, who is only 24, attained fame this year with a fine record of all-around skill. He batted over .300, slugged out 17 two-baggers and 16 home runs. His speed of foot, an unusual asset for a backstop, was shown by his theft of ten bases.

When Grover Alexander, one of the greatest pitchers of all time, started his sensational come-back early last season, he chose Hartnett as his regular receiving mate. The young catcher was given much credit for his handling of the veteran until Alex suffered an injury that forced him to the bench. Incidentally, Hartnett and Alexander were buddies with the A.E.F. in France.

TO HAVE SPORT PALACE

MUNICH, Germany.—One of the largest sporting places in Germany is to be built here on a tract formerly occupied by a munitions works. The place will have a seating capacity of 11,700 with room for 5,000 standees.

The proposed palace also will be used for conventions and political meetings, but sporting events will have preference of dates.

CHURCH BECOMES THEATRE

BERLIN, Dec. 18.—One of the old churches of Berlin has been changed into a theatre,despite the protests of a number of worshippers of former years. The church had been closed for some time because of an insufficient congregation. It has been agreed that nothing but plays of the highest literary excellence are to be presented.

TIPPING RESUMED

BERLIN, Dec. 18.—With the stabilizing of Germany's finances the practice of tipping street and bus conductors has returned. It is customary among many passengers paying fare of 15 to 20 pfennigs to give the conductor a tip of five pfennigs which he is supposed to divide with the motorman.

The street car and bus men receive $25 to $30 a month, according to length of service.

USING CART WHEELS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The scheme of the United States government to boost the use of silver dollars as more economical than paper currency, has caused Secretary of the Treasury Dewey to keep them in his desk. Always he keeps ten "cart wheels" on hand and he pays for his luncheon with a United States doubloon.

A JUNCTION HE COULDN'T LOCATE

"Where did the car hit him?" the coroner asked.

"At the junction of the dorsal and cervical vertebrae," replied the medical witness.

The burly foreman rose from his seat. "Man and boy, I've lived in these parts for fifty years," he protested, "and I never heard o' the place."

STILL SENSELESS

"I'm well aware, fellow-citizens," said the soap-box orator, "that the views I advocate are not popular. Not ten days ago I was struck in the head by a brick and knocked senseless."

"Why didn't yo uwait until yee get yer sense back before yer started talkin' again?" inquired a voice from the rear of the crowd.
