$5,000,000 FOR FIREWORKS

LONDON, Eng.—Guy Fawkes, the man who attempted to blow up the Houses of Parliament, was heartily condemned when his plot was discovered, but he has since grown into something of a patron saint for English small boys and makers of fireworks. Estimates of the value of fireworks consumed in celebrating his special day, November 5, this year ran as high as $5,000,000.

Mrs. D. W. Morrissey, who has been on a trip south, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon.
