New Clam Cannery at Tow Hill Will be Running Shortly With Big Payroll; Settlers Wanted

That the new clam cannery situated at Tow Hill, 16 miles east of Massett, Queen Charlotte Islands, will be completed and running, employing 200 men and women, by the end of the month, was the statement made this morning by Capt. H. B. Babington of the Langara Fish & Packing Co. who, in company with Capt. E. H. Simpson, a business associate, arrived in the city last night on the company launch Waterfall. A new warehouse has been built at Massett adjoining the government dock for handling the inward and outward freight during the season.

The launch Waterfall had a cargo, of canned clams for the south and LLOYD GEORGE will take empty cans back to Tow LLOYD GEORGE Hill.
