NEWMARKET, Oct. 2. —The jockey club stakes were won here today by Tetrasina owned by H. H. Aga Khan. J. P. Hornung's Papyrus came second with Parth, the property of M. Gouldas coming in third.

CRITICISM OF FIGHT FIRPO VERSUS WILLS

HARTFORD, Oct. 2. — "The most ghastly critique on civilization," declared President R. B. Ogilby of Trinity College, before the Rotary Club, "was the pitting of a black mass of flesh against the giant from South America at Boyle's Thirty Acres, where paid admissions were enough to build a university."

Dr. Ogilby deplored athletic scholarships offered by some colleges, saying they professionalized sports.

A GOOD AVERAGE

You remember the story of the Scotchman who was not feeling as well as usual and called on his family doctor, who looked him over and gave him some pills to be taken at bedtime. A bottle of whiskey was also prescribed for his stomach's sake—a small glass to be taken after each meal.

Four days later Sandy called again on the doctor and said that he was feeling no better.

"Have you taken the medicine exactly as I instructed" the doctor inquired.

"Well, doctor," said Sandy, "I may be a wee bit ahind wi' the peels, but I'm about six weeks ahead wi' the whuskey."

GOOD SUBSTITUTES

George: "Of course, being back in London, I miss the cows and sheep and pigs and things."

Ethel: "Ah, yes, but we still have each other, darling."

Sport Chat

There will be an active basketball season in Anyox this winter it is expected. The Senior League will probably be made up of teams from the smelter, mine, coke plant and Elks. There will also be an Intermediate League and a Ladies' League. The latter League will probably include team from the Mine as well as the Bluebirds and Pats of last season. The Pats will be considerably weakened owing to the absence of Miss Rose Moffatt, who has gone to Vancouver, and will also suffer through the loss of the services of Miss Sundae Calderone who will play for the Mine.

A miniature riot was the sequel in Vancouver last week to a ten-round boxing bout between Vic Foley, the bantamweight of Vancouver and Bud Ridley of Seattle. Ridley put up a first-class fight but, when the referee called the scrap a draw, the ringside fans disagreed entirely. A large number of spectators held that Foley was entitled to the decision, as many as five rounds being his, the remainder being even. Police had to be called to escort Ted Whitman, referee, from the ring.

The directors of the Badminton Club expect to have the hall ready for play on or before the fifteenth of the month. Some changes have been made in the courts which will run the opposite way of the hall from that used last year.

A rule, which is being imposed by the Badminton Club this year, is that members will have to pay 25 cents for the privilege of introducing a playing member whether from out of town or the city. This will prevent any suggestion of non-members taking up the courts when members are waiting for games.

The charge against the Japanese, Tagabashi, of keeping a gambling house, was dismissed by Magistrate McClymont in the city police court this morning.

NOT GOOD FOR GIRLS TO READ SO MUCH OF PETTING PARTIES

Slow Jazz Condemned But Tango Commended by Advisory Committee New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 2. — "Slow jazz" is condemned and the much abused tango exalted in a report made public by the Advisory Dance Hall Committee of the Women's City Club and the City Recreation Committee, of which Mrs. Henry Moskowitz is chairman.

The report, based on a long and careful study of all phases of the dance hall problem, states that the tempo of "slow jazz" is in itself the cause of most of the sensual and freakish dancing."

It urges that "more complicated dances like the tango should be promoted and featured by means of prize contests, exhibitions, etc.

Constant Education

"The public," it says, "requires constant education to restore the artistic dances. The one-step and fox-trot, as danced at present, represent the line of least resistance, and the inertia which prevents the learning of the more difficult dances can only be overcome by persistent effort on the part of ballroom proprietors, who should be made to realize that their position gives them an opportunity to assume leadership in the improvement of the dance."

In addition, the report suggests that only persons with good character references should be employed in dance halls, and that cabarets "should be required to maintain the same standards in music, personnel and supervision as the dance places."

Smart People

In dealing with the cause of some dance hall improprieties, the report says:

"So long as girls read about petting parties and all-night dances at country clubs and popular hotels and restaurants in the city, and devour the stories, photographs and stage representations of the so-called smart people, just so long will the distorted imagination of the less safeguarded girl lead to vulgarity and dangerous practices."

George Innes, Indian, charged in the city police court this morning with intoxication, was fined $10 and costs.

DISCOURAGES GOATS

SOFIA—The sheep and goat census for the current year shows that there is a pair of sheep, or a sheep and a goat, for every man, woman and child in Bulgaria, with a part of a sheep or a goat to spare.

Sheep, however, are much preferred to goats by the Bulgarian government. The reason is that goats, feeding on the fresh, young tops of shrubs and small trees, apparently are eating the country bare of forests. Hence steps are being taken to discourage their increase.

THE SCOTSMAN SCORES

"Are the English mad?" is the subject of a long letter to a London newspaper.

This is one instance in which the perfervid Scot will not insist upon the use of the words "Great Britain." — Edinburgh Dispatch.
