BOY WHO FIRED HOUSE IS FOUND

Will be Charged in City Police Court tomorrow With Breaking and Entering

The boy who fired the residence of J. W. Moorehouse, Eighth Ave. East, on Sunday last was apprehended by Police Sergeant Bailey yesterday.

According to the police, the boy admits having got in the basement window of the Moorehouse home. He found the gasoline torch and lit it. Being unable to put it out he placed it under a lamp and this only spread the flames. Carrying it into a bedroom, the curtains caught fire.

LASH IS URGED FOR VIOLENCE IN ROBBERY

Magistrates Urged To Let Convicted Men Have All That is Coming To Them.

The Victoria Times says: While bandits were robbing the Robson Street branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce yesterday morning the Mayor of Vancouver was advocating the lash for certain types of criminals in an interview he was giving to the press.

Public opinion in the Terminal City will not be slow to support the view of its Chief Magistrate. Since the middle of June there have been nearly a dozen hold-ups in Vancouver and prison sentences seem to have very little effect in discouraging this sort of crime.

Yesterday's attack on the bank manager was a particularly brutal affair. By a stroke of luck the blow which one of the bandits dealt to his head was not a fatal one. But it was not the fault of the aggressor. His idea was to bring Mr. Bonnallie into an immediate state of subjection in order that the robbery could be carried out.

It is high time that violent attacks on the person should be rewarded with as many strokes of the lash as the body of the culprit can stand. He is a murderer by intent and the punishment should fit the crime.

The element of surprise which he is able to introduce into his nefarious work, the speed with which he can make himself scarce, make capture extremely difficult; but if those who are brought to book were to be treated to a generous dose of physical pain, hold-ups would lose a good deal of their appeal for the criminally inclined.

Magistrates and judges will not fall foul of public sentiment if they let these brutes have all that is coming to them.

CHARGE IS MADE FOR HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Saanich Sends About 150 Students to Victoria and Pays $85 a Year Each

VICTORIA, July 29.—Charges of $85 each for pupils from Saanich attending the Victoria High School and $100 for pupils from Esquimalt other than those taking the technical course, for whom an extra charge of $10 is made, were decided upon at a special meeting of the City School Board.

Reference was made to reports that Saanich would build a High School in the municipality, and Trustee Litchfield suggested that no scale should be set, which would force this action. Trustee Brown, however, remarked that talk of Saanich contemplating building was heard about this time each year.

CANADIANS PLEASED OVER RAILWAY LOAN

OTTAWA, July 29.—Keen satisfaction is felt here in official circles over the successful placing of Canadian National Railway loan in New York on a four and a half per cent basis. Not since the war has it been possible to place an equipment issue at less than five per cent and the satisfaction is all the greater in view of the fact that the Dominion Government will shortly be in the market for money.

NEW HAZELTON, July 29.—The remains of Jow Sing, Chinese gardener at the Hazelton Hospital, who became missing about a month ago, were found by D. Me-Gibbon in a shack near the cemetery last week. Deceased had hanged himself and was found suspended from a rafter.

Explanation.

In connection with this letter it may be explained that the news item published Saturday was believed to have been correct, as the information was received from a source which had always been correct in the past. It was understood that the men had been here investigating conditions in connection with alleged illicit shipments of liquor to Alaska, and that they had taken the opportunity of crossing to Ketchikan on the Prince John.

They naturally would not tell anyone, not even the U. S. officials, that they were dry squad men as that would defeat their purpose. The committee declares there were no such men aboard, and that settles the matter. They may possibly have gone on the Louise as originally planned.—Editor.
