NEW OFFICERS FOR ATHLETIC CLUB AT SMITHERS CHOSEN

Norman Kilpatrick is Chosen President for this Year and and George Roberts Secretary

SMITHERS, Oct. 25.—The annual meeting of the Smithers Athletic Club was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday night. A review of the last year's activities in the various lines of sport was presented by the retiring officers, who when they took office two years had to face a deficit of over $100 whereas now the club had a good credit balance and assets valued at nearly $800.00.

Those elected to hold office for the next year were:

President, Al. Finnerty.

Vice-persident, Norman Kilpatrick.

Treasurer, Phil. Hoskins.

Secretary, Geo. Roberts.

Executive: Ted Martin, Vic Williams, R. C. Mutch, Sandy Gazeley and T. R. Thiis.

Although the rink was run by the club at a loss last winter, it was decided that every effort should be made to open it again this coming winter, if not by the club then under private management.

BASKETBALL PLANS ARE BEING ADVANCED

Three Teams in Senior and Intermediate Leagues and Two in Ladies' Already Entered

Delegates representing three Senior League teams, three Intermediate teams and two Ladies' League teams attended the executive meeting of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association in the police court last night, President Jack Campbell presiding.

The teams thus entered are:

Senior League —Sons of Canada, Elks and possibly Moose.

Intermediate — Regiment, Grotto and Colts.

Ladies 'League— Maple Leafs and Gil's (Adanacs).

It is expected that one more ladies' team will be organized.

Forms for the players were issued.

No decision has yet been made as to the hall which will be used for the playing of the league games.

A FAIR SUBSTITUTE

"Do you believe in fairies?"

"Well I have always been able to find somebody to loan me money."

Sport Chat

Though it is over a fortnight now since the annual general meeting of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association took place there has so far been little of a definite nature made known in connection with the prospects of this popular line of sport for the 1924-25 winter season. It has not even been decided yet which hall is to be selected for the playing of the league games. This matter, however, it is expected will be disposed of by the executive at an early date. The games will start sometime toward the middle of next month it is anticipated.

The attention of polo enthusiasts soon will be focused on the Pacific Coast. Major Colin G. Ross, secretary of the Coronado Country Club, announces that the polo season at Coronado Beach, Cal., will open January 1. The annual midwinter tournament, under the auspices of the American Polo Association, will be held March 1 to 20. Several cups will be competed for. The three turf polo fields at the Coronado Country Club have been rebuilt and regrassed since last season and will be in fine condition.

The English amateur golf championship for 1925 will take place at Westward Ho, Devon, on May 25, and the open championship on June 22 at Prestwick. These dates were fixed at a recent meeting of the Royal and Ancient Society of St. Andrews. At this meeting a report on experiments carried out with golf balls with the object of finding out a ball that would restore balance between the length of a hole and the ball's power was received. A ball of solid centre was found to carry as far as balls at present in use, and "floating balls" proved too resilient and lively. These experiments will be continued until something definite is attained.

POLA NEGRI SEEN IN RATHER TRAGIC ROLL

"Men" is Her Latest Drama and It is Being Shown Here Tonight

Pola Negri's latest picture, "Men," proves that a story may be a great tragedy and yet end happily.

"Men" dramatizes the heartless persecutions which countless women suffer at the hands of the stronger sex. It also presents the retaliatory measures which women sometimes adopt in their battle against life.

"Cleo," the role which Pola Negri creates in "Men," is the cumulative effect of the many magnificent characters she has played since she first flashed, meteor-like, across the world's dramatic sky.

The Story

A waitress in a cheap restaurant of a French port, Cleo keeps a watchful eye upon her father, a decrepit musician who provides music for the guests. One night a handsome stranger attracts her attention, and for the first time the young girl experiences the emotion of love.

The Stranger bribes Francois, a penniless ancient who is on intimate terms with Cleo's father, to persuade the girl to go to Paris. There she is promised a career as a dancer. By a prearranged accident, the Stranger appears on the same train by which Cleo and Francois go to Paris. The love interest in the Stranger ripens in Cleo's heart. In Paris, Francois receives his money and disappears, leaving Cleo alone.

Stranger Leaves

Frightened, Cleo accepts the Stranger's offer to take her to his sister's home where she is introduced to an elderly roue but the sister is not in evidence. The Stranger dines luxuriantly, fills his pockets with cigars and leaves by the front door, vanishing out of Cleo's life forever.

The following morning, Cleo, carrying in her lustreless eyes the despairing expression of a lost soul, emerges from the house to which she was lured and wanders away, too stunned to care what becomes of her.

Years elapse and we find the girl has become the most famous dancer in France. Her beauty and her brilliance are universally admired. Many men contend for her favors but she is known as a woman who takes all and gives nothing. Finally, in a mood of desperate cynicism, she offers to auction herself away to the highest bidder. A wild scene follows in which some of the world's greatest fortunes are pitted against each other.

Auctioned Off

Sold by her own will to the richest of her suitors, she realizes when it is too late that she really cares for another. The battle between the man who won her with his money and the man who won her heart is a struggle which gives wide range for Pola Negri's superb art.
