

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Friday and Saturday at 7 and 9, and Saturday Matinee at 3.

D. W. GRIFFITH PRESENTS HIS MONSTER HISTORICAL SPECTACULAR SUPER-PRODUCTION, "AMERICA."

An enthralling photo-drama depicting the sacrifices made by the American Colonists during the Revolution in an inspiring and thrilling manner, illustrating also the beginnings and causes that made these sacrifices necessary. Through this immense spectacle a delightful romance is interwoven. No expense or pains have been spared to make it absolutely correct historically, great attention being paid to details. Many incidents of those stirring times have been reproduced at the actual places where they occurred; actual costumes being worn and actual weapons used. Lexington, Concord, Valley Forge, the surrender of Cornwallis, the old house of Burgesses in Virginia where sat Washington, Patrick Henry and Jefferson, gorgeous scenes at the Court of King George III.

At a recent event when the members of the Gyro Club were entertained by the Rotarians at dinner and bridge, the defeated club, which happened to be the Gyros, had to pay a member towards the fund of the opponents. This sum was yesterday returned by the Rotarians to the Gyros to be used in their playground work.

E. E. Orchard, proprietor of the Bulkeley Valley Hotel at Smithers, accompanied by Mrs. Orchard and her son, arrived in the city from the interior on last night's train. This morning they sailed on the Prince Rupert for California where they will spend the spring. They expect to return north in April.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day, "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought that if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.
