SUN BATHING IS ADVOCATED

Sir Herbert Barker Urges It as Cure and Preventive of Disease

LONDON, June 24.—Sir Herbert Barker, the famous manipulative surgeon of London, has started a campaign to popularize naked sun-bathing on the south coast this summer.

He has formed a Sunlight League, and has induced the Duke of Sutherland to become the first president.

Sir Herbert is convinced that sun bathing offers mankind a cure and a preventive of all its diseases and would sweep away all minor epidemics, such as influenza.

I hope to start a world movement by recruiting enough pioneer enthusiasts to assist in educating the people out of foolish conventions," said Sir Herbert. "Stark-naked bathing is essential for the best results.

"Questions of prudery should not be considered, and the grandmotherly regulations of seaside towns, compelling people to wear enveloping costumes should be abolished.

"There are many ideal spots on the south coast which could be set aside for curative bathing, keeping the sexes segregated. Every seaside town and others possessing open-air baths, should appreciate the value of sun bathing.

"I am satisfied that people must go back to the sun for health. Look at me," Sir Herbert bared his arms and chest, which are bronzed the color of an Indian.

"I never really lived before, and at fifty-six I feel a youngster," he said. "The treatment has made me impervious to colds, and without my clothes I am as warm as when wearing them.

"When you are pigmented as I am you are clothed; it is nature's covering. The best way for a beginner is to do as much as he can in his bedroom, unclothed. I am always naked when I shave."

LARGE SALMON RUN CORDOVA, ALASKA

Number of Fish Taken Exceeds That of Many Years Past

JUNEAU, June 24.—The Cordova region is seeing the largest run of red salmon in many years. Every cannery is running to capacity day and night and the run shows no sign of falling off, although it has continued for some time. On one day the Pioneer Packing Company had nearly forty thousand fish on the floor, the Chartis and Shepard Point people, about as many. The fish caught that day and being canned at the Pioneer produce more than half as many cases of salmon as this company put up during the entire season of 1923.

Well informed fishermen attribute the immense run of this season to the fact that during the season of 1919, the five year cycle of which the present season is a recurrence, high water on the Copper river at the height of the fishing season, made it impossible to take but a small proportion of the fish and the escapement to the spawning grounds was consequently large.

With a short run of reds looked for in Bristol Bay and other parts of Alaska, reds should bring a good price and the Cordova canners should reap a good return after a number of years waiting.

GLASS HEART THAT BEATS

DRESDEN, Germany, June 24.—A heart of glass which beats by the aid of a little electric motor and sends a red fluid coursing through glass arteries, has been placed in exhibition in the Dresden Hygienic Museum. The apparatus is approximately the size of a human heart and was intended to be of special interest for medical students to illustrate the functions of that organ.

REVISION IN WATER CHARGES PROPOSED

City Council Considers Bylaw and Refers it to Utilities Committee for Report

Revisions in water rates are proposed by the city council. Last night the bylaw setting the service charges was read and it was decided to refer it to the utilities committee to bring in recommendations for such revision as it deems necessary.

Mayor Newton failed to see why a real estate office should be charged only 50c when a newspaper office had to pay $1.50. This was only one instance of discriminatory charges.

Ald. Collart thought that some provision should be made where users of water should be required to make a deposit. If they failed to pay their water rates they should be cut off just as were the users of electric lights and telephones. There had been many difficulties in the past between landlords and tenants on this question. It should be settled once and for all.

Last night Mrs. Stein paid her official visit to the local lodge. Later in the evening, the meeting was thrown open to the Knights. Refreshments were served and speeches were made by Mrs. Stein, Mayor Newton and various members of the Pythian Order.

Several events have been arranged in honor of Mrs. Stein while she is here and tonight a reception will be held in her honor at the home of Mrs. Leek.

PREPARATIONS FOR BIG CONVENTION OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY

NEW YORK, June 24.—The vast amphitheatre of Madison Square Garden, is reverberating these days with the clamor of an army of workmen and a corps of architects, who invaded the historic old structure June 1, to dress it up for the National Democratic Convention beginning June 24.

The Democratic party will be in possession of the Garden until July 15 under the terms of the Executive Committee's lease with Tex Rickard. Day and night, from now until convention time, the metamorphosis of the picturesque place will continue. Then, immediately the delegates finish their nominating and adjourn, will begin the laborious process of converting the Garden into its old self again.

The whole job, on which it originally was intended to spend about $40,000, will cost approximately $80,000.

VISITORS LIVE ON SHIP

Where Shall We Go This Evening?

FREQUENTLY you decide to spend the evening in town with some friend. The first part is easy. Dinner at a swell restaurant. But afterwards . . . What will you do to carry on this business of having a good time?

Easy! Five cents. An evening paper. A glance at the advertisements Suggestion—agreement, and you're off!

You didn't go round to the different theatres, to be driven to an unsatisfactory choice by fatigue and time. If it's worth while to consult the advertisements about amusements, how much more worth while must it be when it comes to the spending of household money.

Read the advertisements. They place before you the full choice of the trustworthy goods in the market. They describe advantages, and give you full information before you have to stir out of your chair. Pursue for every article you buy the method you use when it comes to amusements.

The way to be sure of what you buy is to buy advertised goods.

Reading advertisements is an education in better buying.
