TRIBUTE TO BAND

Editor, Dear Sir,

I was reading the write-up you gave the Kitimaat band one night this week, which I consider was very timely, and wish to trespass upon your valuable space to testify to the excellent qualities of the boys composing this efficient band organization. In the course of business I have had pleasure in visiting Kitimaat frequently for a number of years and I honestly say that the teachings these boys got, both in their schools and churches, was of a very noble character. They have wonderful homes and are a splendid type of Canadian citizen. A lot of credit is due to the late Rev. Robinson and family for the excellent Christian teaching he gave the natives in the early days. His motto was "Always be honest and live a clean life." Rev. J. A. Laley, who spent a long time at Kitimaat, was a noble man and the result of his teachings are apparent in the cleanliness and manliness of the Kitimaat boys. Rev. A. Allen, whom I had the pleasure of hearing preach several times while in Kitimaat, also did wonderful work in laying the foundation of a Christian principle for his congregation to live up to. The Rev. and Mrs. Matthews, who are at present carrying on the Christian work, are taking a great interest in the families and teaching them to be honest and good.

The wonderful playing of the Kitimaat band at the exhibition, which has been a matter of so much favorable comment, speaks for itself as to the efficiency of their bandmaster, Mr. Slatter. He has inculcated clean and manly qualities into the members of his band and the splendid manner in which the boys conduct themselves at all times I consider is a credit to Canada.

Thanking you for your kindness.

W. GOLDBLOOM.
