Consequently the government had for several years helped to bear the load because it was of benefit NEW BOOKS ORDERED to the people of Canada. The present government refused to grant the $50,000 necessary and the newspapers are now entirely on their own, unaided by any government, dominion or provincial.

To this paper the added expense amounts to $20 a month. Sum of $460 to be Expended Just Larger papers absorb larger amounts.

It would have been quite possible for the newspapers to cut down the service and thus avoid saddling themselves with the added expense, but that would have meant giving a poorer service to readers, something that the proprietors of the newspapers of the hospital board last night, did not wish to do. Their receipts would have been just as Rev. G. G. Hacker in the chair. large, but there would have been less satisfaction to themselves it was decided to place an order as well as to their readers. Accordingly the papers are continuing the service and carrying the extra expense themselves.

PRESENTATION MADE TO DR. AND MRS. SPENCER AT PORT SIMPSON ON MONDAY

Literary Society of that Place Bids Adleu to Members Who are Leaving for Bella Bella

PORT SIMPSON, May 7 .- At a Literary Society held in Port Simpson the evening of Monday, April 5, after a most enjoyable program, Dr. Spencer was presented with a club bag and Mrs. spencer with an umbrella, this being the last meeting they would attend before leaving for Bella

A. Boyd Young, the president, spoke in high terms of the faithful work of Dr. Spencer during the many years in Port Simpson, and expressed the heartfelt regret of all the members of the society

Dr. Sager spoke of Mrs. Spencer's many years of service, especially in the W.M.S. work. It is worthy of note that it was in the year 1888 when first Mr. and Mrs. Spencer came to Port Simpson. Their years' of servicetotal seventy-two. Surely great record and one to be proud

Oliver Government And P.G.E. Railway.

Only those who were blinded by partizan feeling ever believed that Premier Oliver was what the Provincial leaders charged. The published evidence in regard to the inquiry by Judge Galliher indicated to the satisfaction of everyone that the charges made by McRae and Tupper were simply political accusations and not based on fact. The finding of the commissioner came then as no surprise. Neither Premier Oliver or his arch-opponent, W. J.
