The winter storms have done very little damage at the Salt Lake this year. The floats are practically intact but the ladies dressing room needs some overhaul.

Arrivals from Edmonton tell of the heavy snowfall there at the week end and this was followed by a blizzard. Snow fell everywhere on the prairies and in some states the weather was very severe.

Tenders for the supply of pipe and fitting to the city were received at last night's council meeting and referred to the Board of Works with power to act. The bidders were Smith & Mallett and the Prince Rupert Supply Co.

The report of Fire Chief D. H. McDonald for the month of February submitted to the city council last night showed there were two calls during the month with no resultant damage. The payroll for the month was $1,077.

A report from the finance committee recommending that lots 4 and 5, block 72, section 5; lot 11, block 25, section 8, and lot 15, block 27, section 8, be offered for sale by tender was adopted by the city council last night.

A petition from residents of Taylor Street asking that a ten foot roadway be built from the Summit Apartments to the residence of J. Sherman was received at last night's council meeting and referred to the Board of Works for report.

A cottage is being built at the Salt Lakes for B. M. Newell by S. A. Nickerson. The frame is up and the roof on and it will be ready for occupation within a week or two. It is overlooking the landing in the bay at the approach to the lakes.

The fire department responded to seven alarms during the month of March. The total damage has not yet been estimated but it is believed that it will be under $500. The most serious fires were the blaze in the Howard Steen's garage on Borden Street and a shack fire on Fraser Street.

Local medical opinion is divided on a suspected case of smallpox that is confined in the isolation hospital. Some of the doctors believe that it is merely chicken pox while others take the view that it is smallpox of a mild nature following vaccination. In any case, precautions are being taken and the patient remains in isolation under care of a male nurse.

A letter from J. C. McRae, secretary of the Prince Rupert Club, stating that the members of the club were favorable to accepting the city's counter-proposal for the exchange of club property in lieu of the city removing rock from under the club premises but that final decision would have to be made by the debenture holders of the club was received and filed at last night's council meeting.

Ex-Mayor H. B. Rochester had a communication before the city council last night recommending that the usual spring clean-up measures be adopted this year. The letter referred particularly to the "disgraceful condition" of the site of the old St. James Hotel. The letter was referred to the Board of Works, Mayor Newton stating that the city engineer had already been given instructions in connection with the premises particularly complained of.
