LADIES PLAY CLOSE GAME

Adanacs Beat Kaiens by 14 to 10 at Basketball—Sons of Canada Won Over Teachers

The Sons of Canada had no difficulty winning last night's Senior Basketball game from the Teachers by a score of 62 to 24. It was the Canuck's game all the way although the Teachers occasionally showed signs of good form.

Sons of Canada—H. Menzies, 22; H. Astoria (1); D. Balfour (1), 34; V. Menzies, 2; D. Graham, 4.—Total, 62.

Teachers—D. H. Hartness (1); G. Shenton (2), 8; A. Lane (1), W. Lambie, 10; W. Wrathall, 6. —Total, 24.

The Kaiens gave the Adanacs a good run for their money in the Ladies' League and lost by the narrow margin of 14 to 10.

The scoring was as follows:

Adanacs—Miss Vera Shockley, 2; Miss Leona Parker, 6; Miss Annie Kelly, 4; Miss Pete Tremayne (3), 2; Miss Willa Dyer (2),—Total 14.

Interest in the Prince Rupert Basketball Association's remaining games this season gives promise of continuing unabated in view of the close situations that have arisen involving championship honors in the Senior and Ladies' Leagues. The Sons of Canada, through her victory last night over the Teachers, are now two points ahead of the Colts in the Senior League standing and there will thus be much at stake for both teams when the Colts and Canucks meet next Monday night. If the Colts win it will be a matter of touch and go for the balance of the season. If the Sons win they will again have the championship practically cinched. In the Ladies' League the Adanacs and Maple Leafs are once again on even footing at the top of the list. This means another game replete with interest and important bearing on the standing when the two leading Ladies' aggregations meet next Monday evening. It will be a battle royal for advantage in the championship race.

◆

League leaders and cellar position holders will meet in the Prince Rupert City Billiard League tournament tonight between the Great War Veterans and St. Andrew's Society. General interest attaches to the meeting in view of the chance that the Vets may be still further reduced in their leadership. The Grotto team has been going strong up to last Wednesday night when the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor took the wind out of their sails by a decisive victory over them. As it is, however, the Grotto are still in second place and the lead of the Veterans is by no means insurmountable. With the most of the second half still in front of them, all teams in the league still have chances and each of the tournaments are being watched keenly by the big group of fans that has developed since the competition for the Bulger & Cameron trophy opened.
