Your Boy's Success

NO one starting out in life ever expects to fail. Youth is always hopeful, but hope alone cannot bring success.

If your hope is to see your boy a success in the world, securing independence and comfort—the vision of so many, yet the attainment of so few—adopt a regular savings plan for him now, and teach him in his tender years the value of saving something out of every dollar.

THAT WAY LIES HIS SUCCESS.

CECIL HACKER WAS IN TRAIN ACCIDENT

Cecil Hacker, son of Rev. G. G. Hacker who returned home from Manitoba where he has been holidaying with his uncle and aunt on a farm near Regina, says the people in that district expect to get about thirty bushels to the acre of wheat. Although the grain is rather green, cutting will commence Monday, the farmers preferring to cut the grain green rather than risk the danger of frosts injuring it. Cutting had already commenced at Saskatoon where crops were lighter and earlier.

Cecil was in the train that was off the line near Mount Robson. He was not hurt although a woman was thrown against him by the impact. A waiter who was shaving cut his arm with the razor and a few others were shaken up rather badly. All the cars were off the track except the observation car.

Dr. R. P. Kinsman of Anyox left on last night's train for Halifax en route to his home at Waterloo, N.S. where he will spend a vacation.

J. A. Craig, who spent some time here and on the Islands during the war as an airplane spruce inspector for the munitions board arrived from Ottawa yesterday and is making the round trip to Stewart on the Prince George today before proceeding south to Vancouver tonight. He is on a vacation trip.

William Simmons, charged by George Tessier with stealing two pool balls from the Trail Club, pleaded guilty and was let out on suspended sentence by Magistrate McClymont in the city police court this morning. He will be required to report to the police station for the next month and his parents in Vancouver will be communicated with. He recently arrived from Vancouver with a theatrical outfit.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR HARRY WELFORD IS GIVEN BY INLANDER

Presentation Made in Course of Evening and Dancing Kept up Until Late Hour

The Inlander was the scene of a merry party last night when a farewell dance was given for Harry Welford who has lived there for a number of years and who is now leaving to be married. There were about fifty people present and dancing was kept up till a late hour.

The presentation was made during supper, which was served in the big dining room under the superintendence of Miss Irwin and Miss Aichison with the Inlander staff co-operating. Thomas Trotier read a little address and handed to the retiring member a gold fountain pen and eversharp pencil in a case. The assembled company then sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and gave three hearty cheers and a tiger for the guest of the evening who thanked them in a neat speech for the gift and the kind thoughts which prompted the giving.

The address said:

"Dear Harry—

"We hear you are about to join the ranks of the Benedicts, but before you leave us we wish to show our regard for you by presenting you with a little token. Accept it from your old pals and when you use it, cast a thought back to the good old days at the Inlander. You will be missed there, but what is our loss is somebody's gain. We, who still retain our freedom, will sympathize with you in your new life, but, remember that you are changing your estate voluntarily and with your eyes open. If in saying this we show a tinge of jealousy, the blame is not ours.

"Good luck to you, Harry. All our best wishes go with you and yours."

Those Present

Throse present at the dance were Mrs. McMordie and the Misses Stephens, M. D. Greer, Ray Warlock, E. P. Jenner, Miss Dorothy Stephen, Leonard Bate, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Miss Irwin, Val Tomlinson, Miss J. R. Lee, G. E. Hodgson, Alex. Rix, Miss Helen McRae, Miss Dorothy Thompson, William Watts, Miss Zada Palmbom, Miss M. H. Hebden, Miss Betty Weller, Mrs. Grieve, H. F. Pullen, Miss Yvonne Roberge, Miss Muriel Collison, Walter Holmes, H. L. Mann, Miss Kathleen Stork, Robert Bartlett, Miss Atcheson, R. Garrett, Miss R. V. Long, G. H. Cartland, Miss G. Macdonald, H. F. Thompson, Miss May Burgess, Reg. A. Press, Miss Vi. Cameron, W. E. Burgess, Miss Mary Carter, Richard Howe, Thomas Trotier, R. E. Harrap, Mrs. Nickerson and Miss Newall, and Mr. Mack.

Mr. Welford is to marry Miss Florence Thompson of Seaforth, Ontario, the event to take place in the Presbyterian Church in the Ontario town and following it the young people have planned a motor drive down into the States and visits to many of the Canadian cities en route home. They will live here in the Besner Apartments.
