ELECTION RHYME By a Fisherman, J.I.R.

While drinking toasts and such like things,

Here's to you Mr. Collart. May praises on your noble views From husky throats be hollared

I like your democratic style, Your ideas of election. I hope that all the luck there is May travel in your direction.

We're living not in King John's

Nor do we wish to martyr, But, like the good old barons did, Just make him sign the charter.

No doubt he meant it well enough. So we'll not call him erratic; But don't you think that sort of

Is somewhat autocratic.

So since he wrote that grievous

To the premier of the nation, I hope he'll, like Sir Isaac did, Discover gravitation.
