The feature game of tonight's basketball program at the Elks' Home will be the first Senior League meeting of the season of the Sons of Canada and Elks. Each team has so far won one game at the expense of the Colts so it will be decided which is to take league leadership temporarily at least. A close game is expected in spite of the fact that the Elks had an easy win over the Colts while the Canucks only won by a narrow margin. The Intermediate League game will be between the Grotto and Regiment. It will be the first victory of the season for one of these two teams, both having already been beaten by the Intermediate Colts. The third game will be a Junior League affair.
