SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service.

ELKS' CANDLE HAS GONE OUT

Burned 223 Hours, 22 Minutes and 24 Seconds — Fred Stephens and Harold Larsen Tie for First Prize

The Elks' Christmas Cheer candle which was lit in the St. Regis Cafe a week ago Sunday by Mayor Newton guttered out last night at 52 minutes and 24 seconds past eight o'clock, having burned 223, 22 minutes and 24 seconds.

Immediately after the candle went out, the boxes of guesses were opened at the Elks' Home by the committee in charge consisting of L. M. Fuller, D. Wilton, L. Potterton, Ben Sampson and Ben Self. There were between 600 and 700 guesses.

Fred Stephens and Harold Larsen, both guessing 222 hours, 22 minutes and 22 seconds, were found to be tied for the nearest guess. They will draw for first and second prizes, $50 and $30 respectively. Other prize winners are as follows:

Third—Dr. J. A. West, $20, 225 hours, 51 minutes, 3 seconds.

Fourth—Andy Donald, $10, 226 hours, 10 minutes, 5 seconds.

Fifth — Miss Hart, $5, 220 hours, 8 minutes, 7 seconds.

Sixth—Mrs. O. A. Johnson, $5, 227 hours, 15 minutes, 7 seconds.

Seventh—Thomas Trotier, $5, 228 hours, 37 minutes, 8 seconds.

Eighth—P. T. Adams, $5, 229 hours.

Ninth—Fred Stephens, $5, 230 hours.

Tenth — Desmond Brady, $5, 216 hours, 30 minutes, 20 seconds.

Twelfth—Mrs. E. J. Large, $5, 216 hours, 25 minutes, 17 seconds.

Prizes will also be awarded to the two highest and two lowest guessers. These are: high—Miss M. Durant, 378 hours, 8 minutes, 18 seconds; David Smith, 335 hours, 20 minutes. Low—Mrs. John Dybhavn, 14 minutes and 4 seconds; Miss Margaret Jones, 4 hours, 6 minutes, 4 seconds.

John Bulger was official timekeeper and Archie Robinson, official watcher.

The prizes will be awarded at a dance to be held in the Elks' Home on Friday night.

ELKS' AND ROYAL PURPLE XMAS TREE

Much Merriment Prevailed Yesterday When Lodges Entertained Kiddies

The Elks' Hall was the scene of much merriment yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the annual Christmas tree held under the joint auspices of the Elks and Ladies of the Royal Purple. Some 100 children accompanied by their parents were present. The hall was gaily decorated and a monster Christmas tree laden with good things for good children occupied the centre of the floor. The electrical effects on the tree were remarkably fine. During the festivities the Westholme orchestra played musical selections which were much appreciated.

There was much hand clapping and laughter when Father Christmas (Jack Cobb) appeared on the scene and he kept the kiddies in high good humor while distributing the many lovely gifts.

At the conclusion of the Christmas tree, a sit-down supper was served to the children and adults by the Ladies of the Royal Purple who were ably assisted by Mrs. Carrol in the kitchen.

The committees responsible for the success of the afternoon were—Elks—Frank Dibb, convener, assisted by Bert Glassey, Jack Cobb, E. Sabourin and Geo. Waddell; Ladies of the Royal Purple—Mrs. Fred Gilhuly, convener, assisted by Mrs. Murray Fuller, Mrs. W. Williscroft, Mrs. Bert Glassey and Mrs. C. Balagno.

FORCEFUL STORY BY SIR HALL CAINE IN WEEK-END PICTURE

Young Judge is Called Upon to Pass Sentence Upon Girl Whom He Wronged

A forceful story by Sir Hall Caine, and an all-star cast which includes Conrad Nagel, Mae Busch, Hobart Bosworth, Patsy Ruth Miller and Creighton Hale, combine to make noteworthy Victor Seastrom's first American production, "Name the Man!" which comes on Friday and Saturday to the Westholme Theatre.

"Name the Man!" is from the celebrated English novelist's recent best seller, "The Master of Man." It tells the striking story of a young judge whose first act of office is to pass judgment on a girl he himself wronged.

The courtroom scene, which is one of the intensely dramatic incidents in the story, calls for some of the greatest emotional and dramatic acting which has ever reached the American screen—with a man—human, erring, whose deep and lasting affection for one girl is pitted in combat with his pledge to duty which calls him to say "you must die!" To a frail, sweet girl who owes her downfall to him, her judge.

Mae Busch plays the part of the wronged girl—her second leading part in Hall Caine stories, with Conrad Nagel playing the part of the judge.

A brilliant cast, with gigantic settings picturing the ancient prison and castle on the Isle of Man, and superb photography add to the perfection of the distinguished European director's first Goldwyn production. It will make his name familiar to every picture fan in the country and help the films to come into their own as an art as well as an entertainment.

Sport Chat

None of us thought our friend Tiny Walker was much of a wrestler when he was here three years ago. Doubtless his acquaintances will be interested to learn of the side line he adopted since going south from Alaska recently. He started in the business of raiding hen coops and last week was caught by the police at Everett and poor Tiny will spend the New Year in the County jail. The Seattle P.I. tells about it:

Tiny Walker, wrestler, arrested last week as he was about to enter the ring for a bout with Lud Slais, today before Justice Young admitted stealing sixty chickens from the H. Groeninger ranch. He was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail. Two other men and three women arrested with him were dismissed. Two of the stolen chickens were found in the kettle at Walker's home, and twenty-eight were traced to a butcher shop where he had sold them.

In a year or two John Risko, the Cleveland heavyweight, should come up as a logical contender for the heavyweight crown now gathering dust in the closet of the movie home of Jack Dempsey. At least, Risko should be as logical a contender as any of the bevy of hopefuls and highly press-agented gents now seeking a crack at Dempsey's sky piece. It has been mentioned before, without drawing any argument, that the prime requisite of a heavyweight is the ability to sock. Risko can deliver the short, straight socks that sink the receiver drunkenly like a soggy, waterlogged ship. Since entering the pro ranks, Risko has been defeated but twice and these twice on close decisions. Against this he has an enviable string of kayoes. Above all, Risko has been in the game only about three years and has not begun to burn the fatally intoxicating midnight oil.

National League pitchers' records for the year 1924 give Arthur C. Vance of Brooklyn the title of leading pitcher with the lowest average of 2.16 earned runs during the game. Emil O. Yde of Pittsburg leads in percentage of games won and lost with sixteen victories and three defeats. Vance won the most games, 28, and Jesse Barnes, Boston, lost the most games, 20. Jessie Haines, St. Louis, pitched the only National League no hit game of the season on July 17, when he shut out the Boston team. Only three Boston players reached first—all on passes. Vance set a record for the season on August 23 when he struck out 15 Chicago batters in a game. On August 1, he struck out fourteen—also in Chicago.
