Envoy McKay of Port Simpson repeated the story of the birth of Christ and Sergeant Major Prevost distributed presents.

On Christmas Night, the Army gave the first musical festival ever held in Metlakatla. Bandmaster Auckland conducted the entire performance and was given assistance by Charles Auckland, Ambrose Wilson and Peter Leighton, members of the Young Men's Progressive Club.

TOO GOOD

In the soft twilight the boarding house sitting room looked cosy and almost attractive. The comfort must have thawed the heart of the oldest boarder. In an expansive moment he turned toward the landlady and, clasping her hands, murmured: "Will you be my wife?"

The woman did not start or blush. "No, sir," she replied with calm deliberation. "I'm sorry, but I cannot marry you. You've been here four years, and are much too good a boarder to be put on the free list."

Miss Ruth Millar and Miss Madeline Rolston Entertained at Home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Millar

SMITHERS, Dec. 31.—A novel and enjoyable party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Millar on Saturday night when Miss Ruth Millar and Miss Madeline Rolston entertained a number of their friends at dancing and games.

The guests had been invited to come dressed in costumes characteristic of their childhood days and to bring a photo of themselves taken at an early date in life. These photos were arranged in a miniature photo gallery and prizes were awarded to the persons guessing most correctly whom the pictures represented. The first prize was won by Cliff Warner.

Prizes were also given for the best costumes and the first prize for ladies was won by Miss Nan Fetterby, and the men's first prize by W. A. Cober.

T. R. Thiis assisted the hostess and at midnight when he started in on a fresh year in life was presented by them with a birthday cake, suitably inscribed and with the required number of candles.

A dainty supper was served at the usual hour after which the guests spent a couple more pleasant hours before departing for their various homes.
