Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

November 28, 1914.

The Cadet Corps, organized and trained by George Leek, muster in force at the Knights of Pythias Hall last evening when a banquet was held. Speakers included Mr. Leek, Rev. J. F. Dimmick, O. H. Nelson, Canon G. A. Rix, Principal D. McD. Hunter, Rev. W. W. Wright and George R. Naden. There was also a musical program. Mayor Newton presided. This morning the corps staged a sham battle at Acropolis Hill.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, who died recently, was always modest in action and had the faculty of keeping closely in touch with his men. He was termed "The Darling of the British Army."

The business section of the town of Fort George was practically wiped out by fire last week but the indefatigable citizens are pluckily making a new start in temporary premises.

Sport Chat

Having given the Sons of Canada a good close run for their money when they met them last week and with their team looking better now than it did in the first two games already played both of which they lost, the Colts are hopeful of defeating the Canucks in tonight's Senior League basketball engagement thus getting their first credit in the standing sheet. They have a job on their hands, they admit, but they are not daunted and don't see why it cannot be done. The game promises to be an interesting one and probably the feature of the evening's program. In the Intermediate League, the Regiment will have another try at the Colts who beat them in their first meeting. The third and opening game of the evening will be a Junior League affair- Tiny Tims vs. Colts.

It has often been demonstrated that when men box in a playful manner someone usually gets hurt. A most remarkable instance of this was shown in Newark, New Jersey, in which Jack Dempsey, World's Heavyweight Champion was involved. Between his moving picture engagements, Dempsey undertakes vaudeville acts, and he was at the time boxing with a youngster of about seventeen in the course of his performance, and hugely enjoying himself weaving in and out of the frantic "leads" which the youngster was trying to land, when quite unintentionally, the youngster's head bumped into Dempsey's chin. Dempsey was laughing at the time, and his mouth was open, with the result that his jaws came together with a click that could be heard all over the theatre. As the champion stepped back, blood poured from his mouth and it was found that both upper and lower teeth had penetrated his tongue. Stitches had to be taken in the tongue, but no serious after effects resulted.

INGRATITUDE

An old lady was strolling leisurely across a field when suddenly she realized that a bull, with head lowered, was charging straight at her. Picking up her skirts, she managed to reach the other side of the gate in safety. Then she turned round, indignation on her face. "You ungrateful creature," she exclaimed. "Here I have been a vegetarian all my life and this is what I get for it!"

EFFORT TO SETTLE LAND IN PALESTINE

Survey Being Made of Country and Title Disputes Being Settled

JERUSALEM, Nov. 28.—A complete real estate survey is the latest reform to be introduced in the Holy Land by the British administration, which announces the engagement of an expert who was lately advisor to the Egyptian ministry of finance and previously inspector of the survey department of that country. This expert will advise the government on the completion of the land survey of Palestine, and on the best method of undertaking a land settlement.

The agricultural progress of Palestine is greatly hampered by the existence of many disputed land titles and undetermined boundaries, as well as by other defects in the land system inherited from the Turkish regime. Because of disputed titles Zionist institutions and individual Jewish colonists are still experiencing difficulties in purchasing land. Even after the completion of a transaction, the right of the owner to sell is frequently questioned by squatters who claim ownership of the land they cultivate, with resulting delay in throwing open large areas for intensive cultivation.

Stop falling hair!
Money Back If It Doesn't
Scalp specialists will tell you the big problem with scalp ailments is to get the people to form a consistent habit of taking care of their hair.
Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage comes in a patented bottle with a special rubber applicator attached. The method of application is easy—and cleanly. The medicament is fed through rubber nipples directly to the roots of the hair while the scalp is gently massaged. One minute a day with Van Ess stops falling hair, relieves itching scalp and grows new hair. Ask about 90-day treatment plan. We give you a positive guarantee.
