The Man in the Moon SAYS—

ONE of the things that don't get you anywhere is saying what an easy job the Editor of the Daily News has.

STEPPING into the Editor's shoes for just one day (no offence to the Editor) is like misstepping into a huge, dark tunnel, and your head whirls round till you don't know which way to turn first.

THERE are fifty-seven rules for success in business. The first is to deliver the goods. Never mind the other fifty-six.

WHEN you fill the blank for the Poll Tax, "Where were you born?" be thankful that the next question is not, "Why?"

BEING called upon to edit a paper without previous experience, is often an alarm clock that wakens genius out of its slumber.

IF only we could get a gramophone record of the Sons of Canada Basketball team after their defeat by the Colts last week, what a record that would be.

MANY a man who would scorn to pick a pocket or steal a door mat, would steal a kiss and glory in the theft. Which calls for this warning—watch your steps as you are liable to slip—this is Leap Year.

SOME gentlemen in town are so slow that they are patiently awaiting the 29th in hopes that the girls will give them a free lesson—no, they are not all Scotchmen either.

SPEAKING of showers, some girls have showers when they are going to be married. Now, if I were thinking of launching upon the sea of matrimony I should want an out and out rain storm.

EVEN though I am only the Man in the Moon, you cannot say it's "A Kiss in the Dark" when I'm around, or I will throw some light on the subject.

I ALWAYS thought that some day I should mount very high, if only in an aeroplane, but to be up in the Moon at a single bound! Well, this is "Leap" year.

"AH," smiled the Scotchman, as Third Avenue reared him up into the air; "This will save me some shoe leather."

IT was in a quaint old garden and the moon was shining bright; I kissed her, oh, so tenderly, And I hugged her, oh, so tight; But she was a marble statue And I was drunk that night.

FLOATING SPECKS BEFORE THE EYES MEANS LIVER TROUBLE

Good Program Was Appreciated by Audience at Westholme Last Night

When specks start to float before the eyes, when everything seems to turn black for a few seconds and you feel as if you were going to faint, you can rest assured that your liver is not working properly.

The essential thing to do in all cases where the liver is slow, lazy or torpid, is to stir it up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and clear away the accumulated mass of waste and poisonous matter from the system.

Mr. Chas. Aylard, Frankville, Ont., writes—"I used to be awfully bothered with floating specks before my eyes, headaches and sickness to my stomach. I took just half a vial of your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and ever since I have felt as well as I ever did. Now I always keep them on hand."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DRYDOCK ACTIVE REPAIRING BOATS AND BUILDING NEW ONES

Lighthouse tender Newington and two trawlers, Andrew Kelly and Foster, of the Cold Storage Co., are on drydock for general overhaul.

The repairs on the Canadian National car barge which stranded on Watson Rock are nearly completed, and it will soon be ready for work again.

Two 65 foot cruisers for government patrol work are now under construction at the local yards. These cruisers are to be powered with semi-diesel engines and will have every up-to-date equipment. Interior finishings will be of the best and both boats will have a small gas boat tender.

LOCAL RADIO HEARD AT GREAT DISTANCE

Pete Black lately had the satisfaction of having his new radio set being heard in Vancouver. This set is a copy of Jack Barnsley's which was heard last winter in the East and the Hawaiian Islands.

A short time before, Gordon Bulger, with a simple five watt set was heard in Vancouver. Cards reporting reception of the call were received from reliable stations in Fort Worth, Texas, De Noya, Okla., and other stations from most of the Pacific coastal states.

FIRST BOY TO COME TO PRINCE RUPERT

The first boy to land in Prince Rupert was Wallace Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Anderson. He came in the spring of 1907, and lived on what was then known as Centre Street, Wallace or "Wally" as he was called, saw service overseas, and was one of the crack baseball players of Rupert until he left to reside in Seattle.

MISSIONARY SERMON IN METHODIST CHURCH

A very interesting address was given last night at the Methodist Church by Rev. Arthur Barner of Calgary. The subject was "The Methodist Missionary Society Work in Canada." Mr. Barner gave an account of the work of the society among the Indians of this country, the educational advantages that the Indian children have received and the hardships of the uncompromising missionary. He spoke, also, of the hardships of life in the unfrequented places in Canada, of the people's eagerness to receive the gospel and of struggle for existence of these hardy pioneers.

In closing, Mr. Barner spoke of the mighty influence for good exerted by the people who "Lift up their eyes."

GIRL GUIDES

Reorganization Will Take Place Under Mrs. D. Ross; Meeting Tomorrow

Many in the city will be pleased to hear that a new and capable mistress has been obtained to captain the first Girl Guide Troop of Prince Rupert. For the past few months the guides have been unable to carry on activities, as there was no obtainable mistress in town. Mrs. D. Ross, bride of the manual training teacher, has consented to fill the position and with her ability and sportsmanship, a great forward step should be taken to further the guide movement, and stimulate interest in the city.

The first reorganization meeting of the guides will be held at the King Edward High School tomorrow afternoon immediately after school. All members, and those desiring to join the company will attend the meeting punctually.
