OUTDOOR ROMANCE FULL OF ACTION

Hoot Gibson Appears at His Best in "The Ramblin' Kid" Tonight and Tomorrow

The smiling, fighting and popular Hoot Gibson never gave a greater exhibition of his riding skill and limitless nerve than in the breathless and actionful outdoor romance "The Ramblin' Kid." He has the title role in this picture which is coming to the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow night. The story

On the eve of the big rodeo. Carolyn June, a beautiful girl, comes to her uncle, Joshua Heck, that I have received His Majesty's Writ to a cattle man. Among her uncle's ranch hands is "The Ramblin' lens or repair any frame. Kid," a master hand with horses and two vices: wandering, and saloon. Nine Years Ago --- A Few Remarks

The passing of May, 1924, marks the completion of our ninth year in business, as the Table Supply first opened its doors on June 1, 1915. During this time, our expansion has been rapid. We take this opportunity to express to the public our appreciation of the splendid support accorded us, and to assure our many loyal customers that we will do our utmost to retain their confidence for the futur.e

Looking back, we cannot help recalling just one incident, which occurred on June 30, 1915. We disposed of more than 2,000 full size quart baskets of strawberries in one hour between 11 a.m. and 12 noon, at 5c per basket on the day before a holiday. Prince Rupert consumers never received such value before or since. Our policy of quick turnover and small profits has been a winner.
