OVERWHELMING MAJORITY IN SILENT ELECTION

Prince Rupert Women Register Interesting Vote to Save Money and Lessen Work

It is a sign of the times that women should demand more authority in their homes. Not that they want all their own way but that when comfort and economy are at stake they are usually better judges than their husbands.

They are at home all day and know more about the things that go to make for the comfort of the home than the husbands who come home at night expecting everything to be just so. This is why so many Prince Rupert ladies insist on having Nanaimo-Wellington coal. They have made a study of coal and have discovered that Nanaimo-Wellington is far superior to its competitors. Very little lasts a long time. If drafts are shut off at night the fire will be there in the morning. No rock, very little ash and no slack are other points in favor of Nanaimo-Wellington.

This famous coal is sold only by Albert & McCaffery. They have their own team and trucks and assure prompt service. Order direct from them and be sure you get the only coal—Nanaimo-Wellington. Their phone numbers are 116 and 564.

AIYANSH

An appropriation of $1,000 having been obtained for a wagon road, it is being constructed from the river near the post office to the ranch of S. C. Gordon at Irene.

Joe Phillips has been called south on account of the serious illness of his mother. Mrs. Phillips is looking after the ranch during his absence.

Mrs. Agnes Stewart, who is bedridden, is now being cared for by relatives at Aiyansh village, while her husband is engaged on roadwork at Irene.

Most of the Indians have now returned to Gitlakdamix and are finishing the houses they commenced to build early in the year.

A mild thaw set in after a prolonged snap of cold weather.

The new game regulations are proving of great benefit to the people of this district and a rich haul of fur is anticipated.

DEMPSEY TONIGHT IN FIGHT AND WIN

Jack Dempsey, world champion fighter, is the leading figure in "Fight and Win" at the Westholme tonight. In the story Jack O'Day, steel worker, noted for his ability to fight, is seized on as a "white hope" by a clever fight manager. He becomes champion of the world. He and his cohorts then face the problem of guarding their newly acquired riches. Jack in the meantime is left an orphanage, which is almost wrecked by debt. Keeping up the orphanage, caring for a sick mother and other interests keep him fighting, while blackmailers and others pursue him. Among the laughs are many big thrills—a sensational rescue of a child from a railroad trestle, spectacular fights, and other big stunts. It is one of the liveliest fight stories ever told on the screen.

TOM MIX AND HORSE TONY HERE TONIGHT

Famous Actor and Famous Cow Pony Seen in "The Trouble Shooter"

Admirers of "Tony," famous Tom Mix cow pony, will be delighted with the animal's cleverness and new adroitness in "The Trouble Shooter," which opens here tonight.

Perhaps the most daring run which Tony has ever made with Tom astride his back is in the present picture wherein the famous pony travels at break-neck speed over a high railway bridge, which spans a deep chasm in the gorges of Yosemite Valley, California. The runway over which Tony carriees his master is but a foot-wide plank between the rails. Immediately behind the horse and rider thunders a big locomotive and heavy train. Tony wins by less than a couple of seconds. The distance covered is approximately half a mile. A slip would throw horse and rider over the unguarded edge of the bridge to the gorge below, a sheer drop of five hundred feet.

PEOPLE WONDERING ABOUT CATCHY MUSIC

Choruses in "The Beauty Shop" Heard from the Street Attract Attention

People passing up and down Third Avenue evenings wonder what catchy music that is they hear coming from the Elks Hall and when they inquire they are informed it is the chorus work of "The Beauty Shop," in which sixty people take part and which is already becoming perfected to a wonderful degree. What many cannot understand is how the director can take groups of practically raw recuits and in less than two weeks give them such training as to produce such excellent results. The training is said to be worth a great deal to those who take part.

Bookings already are coming in very fast for the two nights but especially for Thursday. Experience shows that often the first night is the best and it looks as if the people booking are taking the wrong night. As the play will be shown only two nights, there are likely to be a lot of disappointed people.

Mr. and Milton Gonzales and daughter are sailing tomorrow night on the Cardena for Vancouver. They expect to be away about two weeks.

DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL

Mary Pickford in Great Photoplay is to be Here at Week End

Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall, the great play of romance and history of the time of Mary Queen of Scots. At a recent showing of the play in New York the reviewers were unanimous in praising the work of the great little actress.

"Mary Pickford has never had a vehicle better suited to her talents than 'Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall,' and never has she given a better account of herself," says Louella Parsons in the New York American.

"'Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall' is in many respects the most ambitious spectacle of Mary Pickford's career," said Thomas B. Hanly in the Morning Telegraph. "The consensus seemed to be that Miss Pickford has done an uncommonly fine bit of acting and that she had not at any time allowed herself to be submerged as it were in the big scenes."

"It is doubtful that even those who are rabid Mary Pickford fans were prepared for so much loveliness, even though all knew beforehand that she would give a delightful performance full of spirit and technique," said Harriette Underhill in the Herald-Tribune.

"As Dorothy Vernon Miss Pickford has a part that suits her as well as any in which she has ever appeared," said F. W. Mordaunt Hall in the Times. It gives her a chance to be coy, impulsive, saucy, angry, vivacious, winsome and perfectly lovely."

"Mary Pickford's new picture has all the charm and delicacy of Chrales Major's vivid romance. It is truly a beautiful photoplay.

"'Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall' is as sweet and wholesome and romantic and exciting a picture as you ever saw, and you surely will like it," said the reviewer for the Evening Post.

"The first night audience gave every indication of full approval as indeed it should have," said the critic for the Sun, "for 'Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall' is a stunning thing to look at."

HITTING THE BALL

Many beginners in golf — and many who are not beginners — are greviously afflicted with the malady of topping the ball. A player whose efforts to cure himself of this infliction only resulted in the reverse of the Coue formula, addressed a professional with gloom in his ear and despair in his eye. "I'm hitting the ball every time right on the top. I want you to tell me a cure for it!"

"Oh," replied the professional, "just turn the ball upside down."

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.

C. M. Barbeau of Ottawa arrived in the city from Hazelton last night. Mr. Barbeau is engaged in native research work in the interior for the federal government.
