The Genuine Livingston & Scott Pleated Skirts

Pleated Skirts

Even more pleated than ever. The New Spring Styles show tinier pleats used in groups.

To meet the vogue for matching and related garments we have the new fabrics in all the bright Spring colors.

We recommend Livingston & Scott pleated skirts because the pleating is guaranteed to stay in pleat. The skirts have full hip size and contiguous spare facings that will not rip.

HON. T. D. PATTULLO WAS RE-ELECTED YESTERDAY BY HANDSOME MAJORITY.

not, the result again might have been different. Undoubtedly they expressed their appreciation of the Oliver government's legislation on behalf of women and girls.

"Whatever, the results as a whole may be and they still seem very uncertain at this time and whatever the future may have in store, I am sensible of my obligation to you and let me say that as long as I live my object will be to work for the upbuilding of Prince Rupert city and district."

Mackay Spoke

Later, T. Ross Mackay, the defeated Provincial Party candidate, appeared. Taking his decisive defeat in a philosophical manner, his remarks were of such a heartily humorous manner that he won an ovation from the crowd. Mr. Mackay congratulated Mr. Pattullo on his victory and the fact that he still retained the confidence of the Prince Rupert electors. "As far as I am concerned, the electors felt so kindly towards me that they gave me no chance of being elected. All I hope is that Mr. Pattullo may be able to carry out all that he has undertaken and if ever, in the interests of the city and district, I may be able to extend him any assistance I will ever be only too pleased to do so. I have no explanations to offer and I willingly accept the verdict of the people as final. I appreciate their unanimous invitation for me to remain in the city."

Not Personal

Replying briefly, Mr. Pattullo referred to the clean, straight and manly fight that had been put up by Mr. Mackay. His defeat, the minister said, could not be taken as a personal matter. It had been generally realized that the fight would centre between the government candidate and the Conservative. The Provincial Party had not been a factor in this district. Mr. Pattullo concluded his remarks by stating that the people of Prince Rupert would undoubtedly appreciate Mr. Mackay's work in the city.

Mayor Newton did not appear at the Empress Theatre but remained at his own committee rooms where the results were being posted. His Worship took defeat in a cheerful manner and assumed the democratic attitude that, since the people had spoken, further remarks by himself were unnecessary.

The candidates, both winners and losers, visited the G.W.V.A. rooms during the evening at the invitation of that organization.

COULDN'T SLEEP HEART WAS BAD NERVES A WRECK

Mr. H. A. Reid, Upper Musquodoboit, N.S., writes:—"I am very thankful for the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

When I came home from overseas, in 1920, my heart was very badly affected by concussion, and my nerves were a dreadful wreck. I was very short winded, and could not possibly sleep at night, in fact, I was in such a condition I felt as if I did not wish anyone to speak to me. I thought I would try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and before I had taken two boxes I could enjoy a good night's rest as well as anyone.

There are lots of returned men who are suffering the same as I did, and I feel sure that if they would only try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills they will receive the same relief that I have."
