FINE CONCERT AT SEAL COVE

Affair Friday Night Had Large Attendance and Reflected Credit on Training

About 95 appreciative friends of Seal Cove scholars assembled in one of the school rooms for the concert on Friday night which every child in the school endeavored to make a success.

The playlet entitled "Mother Goose's Party" gave scope to varied gifts. Mother Goose was Miss Thelma Skinner, who acted as a charming hostess. Her helpers were the Misses Angelica Colussi and Margaret Fergusson. Miss Edith Brewerton was Mother Hubbard and led in the singing of "Jingle Bells" with great sweetness. A feature of the evening causing great amusement was Brown Betty's (Iram Bussanich's) hen which persisted in cackling before it's appointed role. Miss Charlotte Soriano made a charming daffidown dilly and Miss Aleza Dodd as Betty Blue, Lillian Vatcher as Bo-Peep, Edna Strand as Miss Muffett, were dainty favorites. The boys' parts were taken well. Jack Meadley was loyal to his Jill in the person of Miss Ethel Moorehouse. Geo. Veirick took the part of Jack Horner, Charles Wood was Boy Blue, Miss Bertha Biornson was a lively Mistress Mary and Fred Peachy was a perfect Peter Piper. Mark Cavenaile was Simple Simon, and Briand Parsons and William Watt were friends who helped the party by their singing and recitations.

The four children dancing the minuette were Misses Edith Fergusson, Eleanor Sievert, Leo Dorien, and Jim Colussi. This was one of the prettiest features of the evening. A drill perfectly carried out was executed by Rupert Soriano, Ruperl Businich, Darrow Gomez, Jimmy Colussi, Misses Cecile Cavanaile, Kazui Nishil, Ethel Moorhouse and Alice Gomez. There were action carols in which Primo Vaccher, Thorston Bjornson and Amego Soriano took part and were gorgeously dressed as the Three Kings. The sheperds Rene Cavenaile, Guido Businich, Michael Colussi, and Charles Anderson formed a picturesque group, and Angelica Colussi, with three angels, Edna Strand, Edith Fergusson, Alice Gomez, in the cradle scene were well received.

Costume Drill

The costumed drill "Playing at Soldiers" was performed by Robert Peachey, George Fergusson, Briand Parsons and William Watt with their partners Charlotte Soriano, Laura Bjornson, Aleza Dodd and Mary Martin.

The recitations were "Hiawatha's Hunting" by Amego Soriano, who spoke with much feeling; "The Inchcape Rock" by Fred Peachey; "If I were Santa" by Jim Colussi and "Pockets" by Kazu Nishil. Others who pleased the audience with recitations were Eleanor Sievert and Charlotte Soriano.

The entire performance reflected great credit upon the careful training given to the children by their teachers, Miss Winnie Larsen and Miss Ruth Stewart, while the parents of the children rendered valuable service in building a stage and in helping with the costumes and refresments. Mark Cavenaile and Frederick Peachey had charge of the curtain.

Jobs We've Sent Away

There is considerable talk about idle men and creating work for them to do. Certainly we must.

But the whole problem is one of our creation. Last year we spent enough for imported shoes alone to have given every idle man a job if we had bought Made-in-B.C. Boots instead of imported ones.

Preference for home products — more work, better wages for us all.

ELKS' CANDLE WAS LIT ON SUNDAY

Mayor Newton Ignites Taper that Will Decide Winner of Guessing Contest

With all due ceremony the Elk's Christmas cheer candle, in the window of the St. Regis Cafe, was touched off by Mayor Newton at 1.30 yesterday afternoon. Exalted Ruler Ben Self, presided over the ceremony assisted by officers of the order. The guessing contest as to the number of hours the candle will burn has proved very popular and, while the total receipts from this source are not yet known, it is expected a goodly sum will be realized for the purpose of helping the needy this Christmastide.

SCHOOL CONCERTS ARE HELD AT SMITHERS

Pupils at Interior Centre Appeared to Advantage in Term Closing Exercises

SMITHERS, Dec. 22. — Three divisions of the Smithers school held Christmas closing exercises on Friday last. Grades III. and IV., under the supervision of their teacher Mr. Reynolds, had their concert beginning at 1 p.m. Grades VII. and VIII., under Miss Fetterly, starting at 1.30 and Grades V. and VI., under Miss Hanna, at 2 o'clock.

The program consisted of games, recitations, dialogues, class singing, class readings piano solos and vocal solos, all of which were performed most creditably by the scholars taking part and reflected much patience and coaching by the teachers in training the pupils for these events. A large number of parents and friends accepted the invitations to attend and were very much pleased with the entertainments.

L. H. Morton, conductor on the Canadian National Railway who has been residing in Los Angeles, arrived in the city on last night's train.
