Archbishop Du Vernet Gives an Explanation of the Scientific Fact of Thought Transference

Showing how mind permeates mind, and proving how true is the saying that no man lives to himself and no man dies to himself but that all are influenced by all others to a greater or lesser degree, Archbishop F. H. Du Vernet explains more fully how thought transference works. In former articles he has told readers of the Daily News of his experiments with the swinging pendulum, his hundreds of experiments proving conclusively the fact of thought transference. Now he goes a step farther and presents his explanation of this fact. He says:

Recent scientific experiments in telepathy seem to demonstrate that there is a primitive unity between all minds in the realm of the subconscious world. There is no such thing in the universe as an absolutely independent individual mind. There is abundant evidence to prove that while our conscious minds tend to individualize us, our subconscious minds tend to unite us. We have yet to discover a word which will rightly express the relationship which exists between two minds which are in sympathetic harmony. We say that these two minds interpenetrate, and so they do, but the relationship is closer than this. Water may be mixed with sand, but we know that each atom of water and each grain of sand occupy separate localities because both are material. It is different with two minds. They are not material units. They are in space, it's true, for where they act they are, but at the same time they transcend space because they are spiritual. When two minds interpenetrate they are not still separate as sand and water when mixed. They interact in the unity of Mind Energy.

It is not enough to speak of our individual minds as parts of a larger whole. They are more than mere parts, they are living members of the Great Mental Society, but there is something more even than this. To our more comprehensive term which will bring out the primitive unity of the indivisible Mind Energy which pervades the universe.

Barrier of the Brain

When a telegraph operator presses his key every open instrument in the circuit responds because of the unity of the electric energy. In like manner every subconscious mind is in the circuit of the Universal Mind. We could know all that is going on in the Mental Universe if we could become conscious of all that is passing through our subconscious mind, but this is impossible because of the barrier of the brain. We live in a physical body and this body has a physical environment. We must be practical and attend to the things of this life. For this reason our conscious mind functions chiefly through our physical brain, which is the organ of adaptation to this material world. But while we live in a physical body and, therefore, must attend chiefly to the things of sense, we have a spiritual soul and this soul (Greek "psyche") has a psychical environment, and so our subconscious mind, at least to a limited degree, can function through our subconscious mind, which is the organ of adaptation to the psychical world which surrounds us and pervades us. At this point it is of the utmost importance to recognize that while our conscious mind can directly control our physical brain, it can only indirectly control our subconscious mind.

YOU CAN EAT ANYTHING YOU LIKE AND NOT HAVE HEARTBURN

In all cases of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by a disturbed appetite, as when too much food is taken into the stomach it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour, vomiting occurs, and what is thrown up is generally sour and bitter. When you are in this condition you will find that Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will give you relief right away.

Mr. Joseph H. MacDonald, Christmas Island, N.S., writes: "Two years ago I suffered all the time from heartburn. I took one vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have never been troubled since."

It is very nice to be able to eat anything you like and not have heartburn any more.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Affinity With Radio

Mind Energy possesses intelligent activity and moral power. It is, therefore, on a much higher plane than radiant or electric energy, but nevertheless there is a very close affinity between these two forms of energy which both come from a common source. The same law of vibration is operative, both in electric energy and in mind energy. There is a feeling which corresponds to electricity waves. In the psychic world minds interpenetrate, and so they do, but the relationship is closer than this. Water may be mixed with sand, but we know that each atom of water and each grain of sand occupy separate localities because both are material. It is different with two minds. They are not material units. They are in space, it's true, for where they act they are, but at the same time they transcend space because they are spiritual. When two minds interpenetrate they are not still separate as sand and water when mixed. They interact in the unity of Mind Energy.

Power of Thought

The unity which exists in the subconscious realm is a primitive unity. This is proved by the fact telepathy prevails among young children, and primitive races before they have an intelligent understanding of the human mind. An infant crying in its sleep can be quickly calmed by a mother's soothing thought. Long before the days of the radiophone a traveler in the Arctic regions was astonished to hear an Eskimo humming a tune which had just become popular in London. Many individualize us we may rightly apply this term, for they are truly social members; but to our subconscious minds, which tend to unite us, we need to apply a more comprehensive term which will bring out the primitive unity of the indivisible Mind Energy which pervades the universe.

Because this unity of mind energy is a primitive unity, we must not, in our pride of intellect, despise it. In reality it is by an intelligent though indirect control of our subconscious mind that we can come into touch with the Infinite. There is a beyond which is within. All men of genius, such as great musicians, artists, poets, inventors, prophets, and preachers, draw largely for their inspiration upon their subconscious mind, but they do so spontaneously, and it is this spontaneity which is the mark of their genius. Their intellect functions readily through their spiritual intuitions.

The time is rapidly coming when, through a better knowledge of the laws of radio-mind, we can compensate for our lack of genius by drawing scientifically, if not spontaneously, upon our subconscious mind, which is in the circuit of the Universal Mind, because of the indivisibility of the mind energy which pervades the universe.

THROUGH the medium of slender strips of celluloid an actor appears simultaneously on thousands of screens in as many different towns. On the same evening, he entertains great armies of film fans who eagerly pay their money to see his performance.

So the movie star commands a king's ransom for a salary, and a fortune is spent profitably, to provide a proper background for his art. The movie multiplies personality—and earning power.

Advertising does the same thing for a merchant or manufacturer. In a single day it takes his message into thousands of homes—to tell folks why they should have his goods and how to get them. Advertising endows him with a thousand voices with which to tell his story.

But the value of advertising is by no means confined to the advertiser. It has a very definite value to you.

A glance through this paper enables you to sift out the things that interest you. Sitting in your easy chair you can compare values and prices. In a moment you can tell exactly where to go for what you want and how much to pay.

Figure how much useless walking and talking and how much actual money you can save by spending a few moments daily with the advertisements.
