ANYOX BASEBALL TEAM NOT COMING TO FAIR

Effort Is Now Being Made to Bring Team from Ocean Falls for Carnival Week Program

A wire has been received by Ben Self, chairman of the Fair Board's sports and attractions committee, informing him that the all-star baseball team that had been expected from that town will not be coming. Ocean Falls has been communicated with and that town may send a team to take the place of Anyox which has fallen down at the last minute. The Anyox football team is coming as originally expected.

Sport Chat

BOXING, Empress Theatre, Thursday, Sept. 11, 9.15 p.m. Joe Manilla of Ketchikan vs. Brick Skinner of Prince Rupert. 214

With the Fair Week features, the outdoor sporting season for this city generally comes to a close. This year the bill being offered local fans and Prince Rupert's many visitors is equal in attractiveness and general interest to any that has ever been put on and, as a result, it is anticipated that the Acropolis Hill grounds will this week contain the heaviest crowds that have visited during the season. Weather of course, is the governing factor but it looks none too good now. The Fair Board has laid itself out a good deal of expense in connection with the bringing of the teams to the city but it will not be a losing proposition if conditions for the games are at all auspicious.

The sport program for Fair Week as tentatively drawn up is as follows:

Wednesday (Children's Day) — Children's sports.
Native baseball and football
Football, Anyox vs. Prince Rupert.
Fish box nailing contest.
Thursday (Rupert Day)—Native football.
Baseball — Anyox vs. Prince Rupert.
Friday (Anyox Day) — Native baseball.
Baseball, Ketchikan vs. Anyox.
Football, Anyox vs. Prince Rupert.
Saturday (Alaska Day)—Native football.
Baseball, Prince Rupert vs. Ketchikan.

Possibly the last game that will be necessary to determine the possession of the Stuart Shield for 1924, the football match scheduled tonight between the Sons of Canada and Great War Veterans will certainly be one of the most interesting for it brings together the team that is away in the lead for the trophy and the only other one in the league that has a chance to win it. If the Vets should be successful tonight, their chances would certainly be much improved and they would prove dangerous rivals for the Canucks It would also probably be necessary to play the schedule right out. With the match almost constituting the deciding game of the series, it should draw out a bumper crowd of soccer fans. Needless to say, both teams will be on their toes to win.

BRITISH ARE COMING HERE

Wives and Families From London Join Husbands and Parents in Canada

QUEBEC, Sept. 8.—That residents of the British Isles not only make good farmers, but have already proved highly successful in the rural and business life of the Dominion, is evidenced by the arrival here over the week end of the wives and children totalling nearly two hundred of those who had previously come to Canada under the auspices of the British Dominions Immigration Society, whose headquarters are in the City of London, England. The party arrived on the White Star Dominion liner Megantic under the care of W. J. Garnett, treasurer of the society.

These families for the most part come from the Midland counties of England, although a few come from Scotland, from where the fathers left some months ago. Their physical condition and healthy appearance was commented upon on their arrival at Quebec and there was no difficulty in getting by the rigid inspection of the immigration officials. The party left later by a special train over the Canadian National Railways for their destination in western Canada.

Busy Officials

Altogether, it has been a very busy time for the immigration officials and since Friday last until late today, the sheds here have been the scene of much activity. The Cunarders Caronia and Ausonia brought between them over six hundred new settlers, the majority from various points of Great Britain, the rest being a better class settler from Europe. The Megantic, of the White Star Dominion Line, in addition to the special party of 200 also had on board 165 settlers, sailing from Scotland. The Casandria, arriving late on Sunday evening also brought out a party of Scottish immigrants. Western Ontario and British Columbia are the destinations of these latest arrivals, who travelled from Quebec in special trains of the National system.

In addition to the above, nearly six hundred cabin passengers, mostly Americans, landed here from the Caronia, taking advantage of the opportunity of taking in the interesting sights of the ancient capital and making Ste. Annes de Beaupre and the falls at Montmorency.
