Railway Station at Vanderhoof Destroyed by Fire Last Night While Agent Away at Concert

VANDERHOOF, April 22. - The Canadian National Railways station and freight shed here was completely destroyed by fire last night. It was first noticed shortly before ten o'clock, when it had already got a firm hold and before any assistance could be obtained it was well beyond control. In less than an hour the buildings were a total wreck.

The agent's private property, to the value of two thousand dollars was covered by insurance. No one was around at the time, nearly all the townspeople, including the agent, were attending a concert in the commu-
