BY NO MEANS ALLOW YOUR BOWELS TO GET CONSTIPATED

If you allow your bowels to become constipated you will have bilious attacks, sick headaches, coated tongue, foul breath, sallow complexion, specks floating before the eyes, whites of the eyes dull and yellow, heartburn, water brash, etc.

Keep your bowels regular by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, as by doing so you will be able to keep well and have no more trouble with your liver.

Mrs. I. Rubin, Halbrite, Sask., writes:—"I was very badly troubled with constipation, often had bad headaches, my tongue was coated, and I felt anything but well.

After taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills I have felt much better as they certainly did me a lot of good."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TOM MIX HERE TO OPEN THIS WEEK

Is to be Seen Tonight in "The Lone Star Ranger" at the Westholme

The week opens well with a picture that will please everybody and especially the boys. Tom Mix, beloved king of the saddle, and "Tony," his wonder horse, are coming to the Westholme Theatre tonight in the screen version of "The Lone Star Ranger," the popular narrative from the pen of Zane Grey.

It is story of the life of the daring Texas Rangers who went out "to get their man" despite hazard and obstacle." It is such a stirring hard-riding part, replete with romance, that has made Tom the favorite film actor he is.

Lambert Hillyer, who directed the photoplay, took his company to the plains of Texas that he might instill into the picture every element of beauty and interest that has become traditional to the Lone Star State.

Such a combination as Tom Mix and Zane Grey in the Fox production promises to present an excellent picture.

TEMPORARY HUSBAND PROVES PERMANENT

Bewhiskered Invalid Fails to Die and Curious Results Follow

The mission of "Her Temporary Husband" is to provoke laughter, to cure the blues and to take one away from the usual monotony of every day life. And it fills its mission one hundred per cent.

The picture provokes laughter—lasting laughter. Unlike most comedy features it is something more than a hodge-podge of "gags." It tells a story, based on a well-founded plot, unusual it is true, but nevertheless plausible and convincing.

The picture is a screen version of Sidney Paulton's popular stage comedy success of the same title. While taking the main theme of the play for its plot the director, John McDermott, enhanced the picture with added situations and circumstances which through the limitations of the stage could not have been included in the original play. He has evolved a rib-tickler.

Blanche Ingram is left a fortune by her aunt, the conditions being that she marry within 24 hours, but her husband must not be her present fiance. To win the legacy she decides to marry a man who cannot live more than a few months at the most.

At a sanitarium she is wedded to a be-whiskered gentleman who presumably is a fitting candidate for the undertaker's wagon, but it turns out that the man she has married was very much alive —a chap who had made up to look like the grave-yard candidate.

That is but a smattering of the droll plot, for the young man found that by marrying the girl he had precipitated himself into a heap of trouble and finds himself the target of a band of blood-thirsty cut-throats who had been hired to kill the old man.

MARY PICKFORD AS GROWNUP THIS WEEK

Plays Leading Part in Rosita in Emotional Role but With Touches of Humor

To retain the Mary Pickford poise and personality throughout the entirety of "Rosita," wherein she portrays a highly emotional role of dramatic intensity is one of the grestest accomplishments ever demanded of any actress. This attainment is clearly shown in her latest production which comes here Friday.

The retention of her personality was accomplished through the strength of Miss Pickford's remarkable sense of humor, which has enabled her to enact heart-rending scenes of emotionalism, then, to relieve the tension created, immediately present a humorous touch to bring forth a smile.

The description of one scene between Rosita and the King, during the making of "Rosita," may suffice to present the humorous side of a dramatic scene.

One Scene

Rosita's voice is heard outside the door of the set, the door is opened. In dashes a beautiful young woman, her eyes blazing, her form a-quiver with emotion. You feel the verve, the warmth, the high passion of her. Can this be Mary Pickford? You are electrified—thrilled by her dynamic anger. Chills run up and down the spine as she takes the jewels from her neck and throws them on the floor before the King. Next moment you feel the tears starting, as she pleads with the King for the life of her lover. A hushed awe of supressed emotion prevails. But Mary Pickford would not be Mary Pickford without humor, too. She steals back into the set and, child-like picks up the jewels she has so recklessly thrown on the floor.

Just that human touch—that bit of humor has every one laughing—a laugh relieving the emotional strain.

Following she plays a love scene with just such a combination of spiritual and physical ardor as one could ever wish to see.

NURSES ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES

Appropriate Sermon For the Occasion Preached by Archdeacon Rix

Opening the graduating week at the hospital in connection with the nurses' training school, the members of the class attended the Anglican Church last night in a body and an appropriate sermon for the occasion was preached by Archdeacon Rix in which he extolled the nursing profession as one of service to the community.

Tonight the nurses will entertain their friends at the Home at a dance and Wednesday evening the graduating exercises will take place. Other festivities in connection with the event will take place during the week.
