"THE LONE STAR RANGER"

By Zane Grey.

Once again Tom and his Wonder Horse "Tony" romp through a stirring story of romantic adventure. A dramatic tale of fearless men in a fear-inspiring country. The Lone Star State, when bullets were more valuable than life. Daring, resolute, gallant and valorous were the men of the Texas Rangers. A photo-play depicting a man's sparkling courage and a woman's lasting love. Billie Dove and strong cast.

Imperial Comedy—"Monks A La Mode."

WOLFVILLE, June 16.—Sir Charles Townsend, former chief justice of Nova Scotia, died this morning.

Delayed on account of discharging heavy freight cargo in the Skeena River, C.P.R. steamer

Princess Beatrice, Capt. Thomas Cliffe, did not arrive in port until 11:30 Saturday night. The vessel unloaded some perishable freight and express here and left after midnight on her return south.

J. E. Miller and T. Mason, customs and inland revenue inspectors, were passengers going north on the Princess Louise to-day on departmental business.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

JAKE says if people will not stop to hear Newton speak at a meeting here, how would it be if the people should make a mistake and send him to the Legislature.

AGES are said to be the most effective calling cards.

IN order to be an optimist you do not have to be an idiot. Optimism alone will never get you anywhere. Just now it is desirable to vote right as well as have faith in the future.

WE all want business this way, and yet some will even vote against the Oliver candidate.

SOME people act like dumbbells, others vote right.

IN remembering what the auto has done for mankind, think of the number of people who have been hastened on the road to heaven by its means.

WHAT the girls are fearing is that the fashions will change and there will be a lot of stubby mustaches worn by the young boys.
