HANDSOME REMEMBRANCE

Presented With Clock by Members of Inlander on Occasion of Her Leaving City

The boarders at the Inlander last evening made a presentation to one of their members who is leaving and who has been there a long time. Just before dinner! Miss Margaret McLeod was called ions, read, were to be taken, one into the big sitting room, where on the day they were received, the young people had gathered and the other the following day, and was given a handsome clock. The presentation was made only behalf of the others by H. F. Puted the other on her dresser. The len, who spoke of the high regard they all had for Miss McLeod, of the long time she had been with them and of the regret they all felt at her leaving. He said the! little gift was a token of regard from them, all. They all hoped she would have as enjoyable a time in Calgary or wherever she went as she had had in Prince Rupert. She would be bound tol make many friends but they wanted her to remember them in the new sphere in which she found herself.

Miss McLeod thanked them for the gift and said she would never need anything like that to remember such true friends as she had found there. She wished everyone success and hoped to have the opportunity of meeting them all again at some future time.
